An evangelical minister and a politician arrived at Heaven's Gate one day together. And Saint Peter, after doing all the necessary formalities took them in hand to show them where their quarters would be. And he took them to a small single room with a bed, a chair and a table and said this was for the clergyman. And the politician was a little worried about what might be in store for him and he couldn't believe it when Saint Peter stopped in front of a beautiful mansion with lovely grounds, many servants and told him that these would be his quarters. And he couldn't help but ask "But wait. How? How do I get this mansion while that good and holy man only gets a single room?" And Saint Peter said you have to understand how things are up here. We got thousands and thousands of clergy but you're the first politician that ever made it.

collection in their parishes and missions to provide humanitarian relief and pastoral support for our affected brothers and sisters in Gaza and surrounding areas in the Middle East. This is a mandatory collection and will greatly assist Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA) and Catholic Relief Services (CRS) in their ministry of providing vital emergency humanitarian relief and medical and psychological care for the sick, malnourished and wounded. Pope Leo has called for peace and invites all Catholics to do what they can in offering prayer and providing assistance to those in need. As Archbishop Timothy Broglio, president of the USCCB, has said, "The situation in Gaza and across the Middle East cries out for the assistance of the Catholic community of the United States".

The Cross: A Sign of God's Love

The Cross is a symbol of Christ's sacrifice and our redemption. Jesus willingly died on the Cross to save us from our sins. He took on the suffering we deserved and offered His life for us. Through His death, He opened the way to eternal life.
The Cross reminds us of this great act of love and mercy. The Cross also represents forgiveness. Jesus forgave those who crucified Him, saying, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do" (Luke 23:34). His death was an act of forgiveness for the whole world.
When we look at the Cross, we see how much God is willing to forgive us, no matter what we have done.

The Cross gives us hope. Even though it was a tool of suffering and death, Jesus turned it into a sign of victory. His resurrection shows that death is not the end. By carrying our own crosses, we are united with Jesus and can share in His victory.

The Cross tells us that no matter how hard our struggles are, there is always hope in Christ. Catholics venerate the Cross in daily life and in liturgy. We make the Sign of the Cross when we pray. We display crosses in our homes and churches.
During Mass, the priest raises the Cross, reminding us of Christ's sacrifice. The Cross is a central part of our faith, and through it, we remember God's love and the promise of eternal life.
