Saturday Evening Mass Time Change

After receiving many requests to change the Saturday evening Mass time from 5:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., Father and Parish Council have agreed that we are going to give it a try!

Beginning Saturday, October 17, and every Saturday thereafter,
we will celebrate

Holy Mass at 4:00 p.m.

We hope this change will bring our 4:00 p.m. parishioners back to our church. We also hope that, especially during the winter months, the earlier Mass time will allow those of us who have difficulty seeing in the dark to get home earlier and safely.

We sincerely hope this change will be a positive one and that most of our parish family will be pleased with the new time.

As we all know, we cannot please everyone, and there may be some who do not agree with the change. However, we are willing to give it a try and see how it works for our parish.

Again, we hope everyone will be happy with the new Saturday evening Mass time, and we look forward to seeing a packed church on Saturday evenings and Sunday mornings!

Thank you all for your understanding, support, and continued dedication to our parish!

Deanery Leadership Day

Saturday, October 3, 2026

Sacred Heart Church

10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

A Time of Renewal and Communion

We invite you to join parishes throughout our Deanery for a special day of prayer, fellowship, and renewal. Deanery Leadership Day is an opportunity to be strengthened in your call to serve God's people, discover new paths for ministry, and rejoice in the unity of our wider Church. Together, we will renew our shared mission of proclaiming the Gospel with faith and hope. This gathering is especially encouraged for those who currently lead a ministry, serve in a parish role, or are simply interested in learning more about the different ministries within our Church.

You do not need to currently be a ministry leader to participate! At this time, Father Damian, Laurie Lipscomb and Gerri Garza are signed up, and we are hoping to have at least four more parishioners join us. This could be a wonderful opportunity for anyone who feels called to grow in their faith, explore ways to serve, or simply learn more about how they can become more involved in the life of our parish. If you are interested or would like to learn more, please contact Laurie in the church office. We hope you will prayerfully consider taking advantage of this meaningful opportunity for fellowship, encouragement, and spiritual renewal!

Altar Server Training
Sunday, September 27th
Immediately following the 9:30 AM Mass

All children who have recently received the Sacrament of First Holy Communion are now eligible to become Altar Servers.

Serving at the altar is a beautiful honor and privilege, allowing our young parishioners to participate more fully in the celebration of Holy Mass.

We sincerely encourage all parents to encourage their children to take part in this special ministry and to prayerfully consider becoming an Altar Server.

We look forward to seeing you after Mass on Sunday, September 27th!

Interested in Becoming Catholic or Completing your Sacraments? The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is a journey of faith for those who wish to explore the Catholic Church, prepare for Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, or simply learn more about Catholic beliefs and practices. If you are unbaptized, baptized in another Christian tradition, or a baptized Catholic who has not received all the Sacraments of Initiation, contact Gerri Garza by text at 830-200-9854 or email: gerrigarza@gmail.com

JCDA

JCDA will have a meeting October 4th after the 9:30am mass in the parish hall.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel, Jesus moves from Galilee to teach in Judea where he is sought out by great crowds and tested by the Pharisees on issues such as marriage and divorce. Jesus also encounters a rich young man who is unable to accept Jesus' demand that he leave his possessions to follow him. Jesus' response to the rich young man sounds very much like the conclusion we will find in today's Gospel: the first will be last and the last will be first.

On the surface, the parable of the workers in the vineyard appears to be an offense to common sense. Those who work a longer day ought to be paid more than those who work just an hour or two. When viewed in this way, the landowner seems unfair. That is because we are reading into the parable our own preconceived notions of how fairness and equality should be quantified.

A close read shows us that the landowner paid on the terms that were negotiated. The landowner, it seems, has acted completely justly. The parable goes beyond that, however, and we come to see that the landowner is not simply just, he is exceptionally just. He is radically just. He has given those who labored in the field for a full day their due pay. But he has also given a full-day's wage to those who worked only a single hour. No one is cheated, but a few receive abundantly from the landowner just as we receive from God more than what is merely justifiable or due. God, like the landowner, is radically just and abundantly generous. The workers who complain are made to look foolish as they lament the fact that landowner has made all workers equal. Indeed, what more could one ask for than to be treated as an equal at work or anywhere else?

The parable reminds us that although God owes us nothing, he offers abundantly and equally. We are occasionally tempted to think that our own actions deserve more reward, more of God's abundant mercy, than the actions of others. But God's generosity cannot be quantified or partitioned into different amounts for different people. When we think that way, we are trying to relate to God on our terms rather than to accept God's radically different ways.
