Archbishop's Appeal

Archbishop Gustavo has invited us to join him in being Courageous in Christ by supporting the 2026 Archbishop's Appeal for Ministries. Our parish goal is $6,606 and we have reached 44% of our goal. This appeal strengthens the mission of the Church throughout the entire archdiocese—feeding the hungry, comforting the sick and imprisoned, forming our young people in faith, and preparing future priests, deacons, and lay leaders, and more.

Prayerfully consider supporting this important effort. Your gift, no matter the size, makes Christ's love visible in powerful ways. The Archbishop's Appeal for Ministries provides a wonderful opportunity for our parish to be united with our archdiocese.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel reading is taken from a chapter of Matthew's Gospel, which is sometimes called the "discourse on the Church" or the "church order" discourse. In this part of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus speaks more directly about matters of Church discipline and order. In today's reading we find one of only three instances in which Jesus uses the word church in Matthew's Gospel.

In Matthew's record of Jesus' teaching, we can hear echoes of the kinds of issues faced by the early Christian community.

In the first part of the "discourse on the Church" (Matthew 18:1-14), Matthew addresses the Christian community's concerns about rank. Jesus responds to the disciples' question about who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Jesus indicates that those who wish to enter the kingdom of heaven must be like children, and he cautions those leaders who might lead these "little ones" astray. He also responds with the parable of the lost sheep, indicating how God will seek out and bring back those "little ones" who have strayed.

In today's Gospel reading, Matthew 18:15-20, Jesus addresses a common occurrence in the Christian community: a dispute between two members of the Church. Jesus outlines a procedure for settling such matters fairly. The victim should privately address the offender and attempt to resolve the dispute without outside involvement. If that fails, then the victim should bring two or three witnesses and confront the offender again. If the dispute is still unresolved, the matter should be brought to the attention of the entire community. If the offender refuses to adhere to the reparations prescribed by the community, then Jesus suggests that the offender may be expelled from the Church.

Jesus does not discourage disagreement within the community of the Church; he acknowledges the reality of conflict and error and offers his disciples a means for addressing such matters. It is in the conclusion to this teaching that the message of hope is found: Jesus is present with the community and will guide the community in its relations. If decisions are taken in prayer, then the community can be assured of God's assistance.

Mass Attendance

The Archdiocese Annual Mass Attendance Count during the month of October will look just a little different this year. In addition to just counting attendees at all weekend masses the archdiocese is also requesting that we give them a more detailed count. This more detailed count greatly assists the archdiocese in overseeing Mass schedules, assigning clergy, monitoring long-term attendance trends, allocating financial resources responsibly and serving the faithful more effectively. Also, in the second quarter of next year, the Holy Father has summoned the bishops of the United States to the Vatican for their Ad Limina visit. In preparation for this visit to the Holy See, a quinquennial report must be compiled and presented by each diocese. For this report, the Holy See is requesting more detailed information from each parish this year. The Ushers and Volunteers will need to record the following for each weekend Mass.

By Gender:

Males

Females

By Age

Children (up to 12 years old)

Teenagers (ages 13-19)

Adults (20 years and above)

Counting responsibility:

Ushers will count everyone entering through the front doors.

Two designated persons will monitor the side entrances and record those attendees.

The names of those assigned to the side entrances will be published in the bulletin as the October count approaches.
