Q: Why do Catholics give so much attention to Mary?

A: Blessed Mother Teresa of Kolkata is credited with a simple response to this question: “No Mary, no Jesus.” This reply gets to the heart of the matter.

Big Smooch

"Our new neighbor always kisses his wife when he leaves for work. Why don't you do that?" a wife asks her husband. "How can I? I don't even know her," he replied.

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

In the Gospel for the Sixth Sunday of Easter we are met with an extraordinary challenge: Jesus commands us to "love one another as I love you" (John 15:12). The letter from John echoes this command. Of course, we are to love those in our family, those we work with, those we like. But the scriptures make clear that we are also to love those we never notice, those we purposely avoid, and even those we are tempted to despise.

In this Sunday's selection from the Acts of the Apostles Peter shows us how far God's love extends, and how far our love should extend in response. Peter realizes that God no longer "shows partiality" to the Jews, sharing divine love exclusively with them. Christ has revealed that God's love extends to all people, and so should ours.

Dead or Alive

If you're spiritually alive, you're going to love this! If you're spiritually dead, you won't want to read it. A church goer wrote a letter to the editor of a newspaper and complained that it made no sense to go to church on Sunday. He wrote: I've gone for 30 years now, and in that time I have heard something like 3,000 sermons, but for the life of me, I can't remember a single one of them. So, I think I am wasting my time, the preachers and priests are wasting theirs by giving sermons at all. This started a real controversy in the Letters to the Editors column.

Much to the delight of the editor, it went on for weeks until someone wrote this clincher: I've been married for 30 years now. In that time my wife has cooked some 32,000 meals. But, for the life of me I cannot recall the entire menu for a single one of those meals. But I do know this: They all nourished me and gave me strength I needed to do my work. If my wife had not given me these meals, I would be physically dead today. Likewise, if I had not gone to church for nourishment, I would be spiritually dead today? Thank God for our physical and our spiritual nourishment.
