Ash Wednesday/Lenten Preparations

On Wednesday, March 6th, a majority of us will begin a 40 Day Journey of Spiritual Awareness by reflecting on our sinfulness, our self-indulgences, our impatience and our love of things of the material world. With so much temptation surrounding us it is not second nature for us to be humble minded, patient, show love and gratitude to our fellow human beings. It's a process. And the season of Lent gives us an opportunity to get a head start on our journey to be the best servant of God that we can be. Begin with examining your routine. What is the first thing that robs your time in prayer? Do you spend time with the Lord each morning? What occupies your mind during the day? Do you turn to God anytime during the day for guidance or just to talk? Do you ever give Him a second thought during the day? In the evening do you bring Him to your table and honor Him with thanks? When you lay your head on your pillow at night do you ask Him for rest and thank Him for the day that has passed? Or was the entire day spent in indifference! During this Lent let us try and changeup our routines! Set small goals for yourself. Start with 15 minutes in the morning just praying and praising God for the day. Perhaps at noon tell God – just checking in. Please stay with me. In the evening start with gathering your family around the table and giving thanks for the meal. And at night thank you GOD for this day!! These are small changes that can be incorporated in your daily routine that is sure to bring GOD a smile. Start thinking about how you are going to spend 40 Days of your life during this Lenten Season.
