Will be Next
Weekend

We did not receive our Chalk or our Holy Water Bottles. We have delayed it until next weekend. So sorry. At the entrance of the church you will find a booklet that will explain the ceremony of the Chalk Blessing in your home. If someone wants Father to come to their home and bless the home and those who live there please call the office and schedule an appointment.

Men Volunteers

Gentlemen! Could we please ask a few of you to help us take down the Christmas Decorations this Sunday, January 7th at 2:00pm? If you look at the decorations you will see they are very large and heavy. We only had three gentlemen show up to decorate. Please give us a hand. We would really appreciate it. Everyone is invited to help get these items packed and stored.

Thank You!!!!

Our Beautiful JCDA Ministry

On December 23rd our JCDA participated in the 2023 HEB Feast of Sharing. It was a day of fellowship and sharing with others and representing our church in the best way possible. Giving of themselves. Thank you ladies for everything you do for our church and community.

We are so proud of you.

First Communion Parent Meeting

All parents of First Communion Candidates are expected to attend a meeting on Sunday, January 28th in the Parish Hall immediately following the 9:30am. Mass.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
- RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY
MOMENTS

More Than a Buzzword

If you roll your eyes at the mention of the term stewardship, it's probably because, in the modern Church, stewardship has become something of a corporate buzzword. It's often used interchangeably with the concepts of financial endowment and volunteerism. What's wrong with supporting your parish monetarily? What's the issue with giving of your time in service and ministry? Nothing at all, in fact — we should all be doing more of these things. But as we do them, we should be constantly asking ourselves the all-important questions: Why am I doing this? How am I doing this? For whom am I doing this?

A donation to the parish school is a great thing. But ideally, the donor would have made the gift regardless of the ability to name the school gym. A tireless volunteer who always finds time for their parish certainly glorifies God with their commitment. But hopefully, their commitment would be just as enthusiastic if they knew there was no prospect of being written up in the bulletin as Volunteer of the Month.

God knows no favorites. The prayer of the Pharisee in the temple did not justify him because the Pharisee didn't really mean it as a prayer. His intent wasn't to thank God, his intent was to draw attention to his gifts. God did not reject the Pharisee's fasting and his tithes, he rejected the spirit in which they were offered.

God desires to transform us — our hearts, our souls, our communities. When we give of ourselves — either through money or through time — he is honored by the act of giving, not the gift itself. We should never make the mistake of thinking that stewardship is "time, talent, and treasure." Stewardship is the spirit of offering these gifts freely.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Volunteer Opportunities

I am going to start out this New Year begging for individuals to step out of their comfort zone into the world of volunteering for their parish. Our ministries are dwindling terribly. It is pretty much across the board.

Lector's, Eucharistic Ministers, Ushers, Catholic Daughters, Knights of Columbus, ACT's, Funeral Committee, Senior Citizen Committee, Altar Society, Fund Raiser Committee, Faith Formation, Parish

Council. The volunteers we have are creaking, limping and are downright tired. But they trudge on because they love their church. The heart of a volunteer radiates love and the willingness to do just about anything that needs to be done for their church.

There are so many ways you can help. Lector's, Ushers, Eucharistic Ministers, Choir and Organists are areas that need help now. We are stretched thin. Please pray about giving your heart and soul to your church and volunteering today. Your love and support allows us to continue to grow and produce fruit in the Kingdom of God.

If any of these areas of volunteering intrigue you, please call the church office.

Thank You

The Harvest is Plentiful, but the laborers are few.
