Father Damian IS HERE

Father Damian comes to us from Kosciusko and officially began shepherding our Parish this past Monday, July 1st. Even though we are just down the road this will be quite a big change from the quiet little town of Kosciusko. We hope we don't scare him off with our big city ways. He is truly excited about meeting and getting to know all of us. We want to welcome him with open arms and wish him nothing but success in his new home. We consider ourselves blessed to have him as our priest and we look forward to the Holy Spirit guiding him in his ministry at Blessed Sacrament. Welcome Father Damian!!!!
