Coronavirus and the Church

The Archdiocese of San Antonio has issued a decree stating all Weekend Masses are canceled through the end of March. All Catholics are hereby dispensed from their Sunday obligation. Weekday Mass will be celebrated as usual. It is difficult to post all of the information concerning this decree. We do have it posted in the church. You can also find it on www.archsa.org. Father Damian asks that we all remain strong in our Faith.

God will protect us and like in any storm that occurs in our lives God assures us that He never leaves us or forsakes us.

So Trust In Him!

We certainly pray for those who have contacted the virus and we ask our Holy Father to protect all of us during this time.

Thank You!!

Blessed Sacrament Mini Series

God does not ask for our ability or our inability, but our availability. Have you made yourself available to take part in this wonderful message to us. Don't miss this opportunity to learn just how important attending Mass is and how to prepare ourselves each week for that special gift from God.

Part 4

That sight, that procession was so beautiful that it would be difficult to compare it to another. All those celestial creatures bowing before the Altar, some leaving their offerings on the floor, others prostrating themselves on their knees with their foreheads almost touching the floor.

And as soon as they arrived at the Altar, they would disappear from my sight. The final moment of the Preface arrived, and when the assembly said, "Holy, Holy, Holy", suddenly everything that was behind the celebrants disappeared. Behind the left side of the Archbishop, thousands of Angels appeared in a diagonal line, small angels, big angels, angels with immense wings, angels with small wings, angels without wings. As the previous ones, all were dressed with tunics like the white robes of the priests or altar boys. Everyone knelt with their hands united in prayer, and bowed their heads in reverence. Beautiful music was heard as if there were many choirs with different voices, all singing in unison together with the people: Holy, Holy Holy... The moment of the Consecration, the moment of the most marvelous of Miracles had arrived. Behind the right side of the Archbishop appeared a multitude of people also in a diagonal line. They were dressed in the same tunic, but in pastel colors of: rose, green, light blue, lilac, yellow, in short in different and very soft colors. Their faces were also brilliant, full of joy. They all seemed to be the same age. You could note (I can't say why) that they were people of different ages, but their faces, looked the same, without wrinkles, happy. They all knelt down as well at the singing of "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord..." Our Lady said:

"These are all the Saints and the Blessed of Heaven, and among them are the souls of your relatives who already enjoy the Presence of God."

Then I saw her, exactly to the right of the Archbishop, a step behind the celebrant. She was suspended a little off the floor, kneeling on some very fine, transparent but, at the same time, luminous fabric, as crystalline water.

The Holy Virgin, with hands joined, was looking attentively and respectfully at the celebrant. She spoke to me from there, but silently, directly to the heart, without looking at me: "It surprises you to see me standing a little behind Monsignor (the Archbishop), does it now? This is how it should be... With all the love that My Son gives me, He has not given me the dignity that He has given the priests of being able to perform the daily Miracle with my hands as they do with their priestly hands. Because of this, I feel a deep respect for priests and for the miracle that God carries out through them, which compels me to kneel here behind them." My God, how much dignity, how much grace the Lord pours over the priestly souls, and neither we, nor perhaps some of them, are conscious of this. Before the Altar, there appeared some shadows of people in a gray color with their hands raised. The Holy Virgin said: "These are the blessed souls of Purgatory, who await your prayers to be refreshed. Do not stop praying for them. They pray for you, but they cannot pray for themselves. It is you who have to pray for them, in order to help them depart so that they can be with God and enjoy Him eternally." Now you now see it; I am here all the time. People go on pilgrimages, searching for the places where I have appeared. This is good, because of the graces that they will receive there. But during no apparition, in no other place, am I more present than during the Holy Mass. You will always find Me at the foot of the Altar where the Eucharist is celebrated; at the foot of the Tabernacle, I remain with the angels because I am always with Him." To see that countenance of the Mother at that moment of the words "Holy, Holy, Holy..." as well as all the others with their radiant faces, with hands joined, awaiting that miracle which repeats itself continuously, was to be in Heaven itself. And to think there are people who can, at that moment, be distracted in conversation. It hurts me to tell you, many men, more than women, stand with their arms crossed, as if paying homage to the Lord as one equal to another. The Virgin Mary said: "Tell all people that never is a man more manly than when he bends his knees before God." The celebrant said the words of the Consecration. He was a person or normal height, but suddenly, he began to grow, becoming filled with light, a supernatural light between white and gold that enveloped him and grew very strong around the face. And because of it, I could not see his features. When he raised the Host, I saw his hands; and on the back of his hands, he had some marks from which emanated a great deal of light. It was Jesus! It was Him Who was wrapping His Body around the celebrant, as if He were lovingly surrounding the hands of the Archbishop. At that moment, the Host began to grow and became enormous, and upon it the marvelous face of Jesus appeared looking at His people.

Thank You

To a wonderful group of ladies who came and scrubbed down the church this past Monday. They were Angels on a mission. Thank you so much ladies. You know who you are.

God Bless!!!
