appreciated. Tickets are NOT available yet.

LIFELONG SERVICE

“I am going fishing.” What an announcement! If asked who made it, and not told it was a Bible quote, we might guess “Grandpa” or “Uncle Fred,” or admit, “I said that last summer!” But it is a Bible quote, from today’s Gospel. The person who said it also once declared, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Yes, it’s Peter! So today’s announcement seems quite the comedown. Last Sunday Jesus said, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” But Peter seems determined to return to his pre-apostolic occupation, until Jesus intervenes, making Peter’s later announcement deeper, “Lord, you know that I love you,” and Peter’s apostolic calling clearer, “Tend my sheep.” Peter does so. Acts presents the consequences: Peter declares, “We must obey God rather than men.” As Revelation proclaims, “Worthy is the Lamb”—to receive Peter’s lifelong service, and ours.

Third Sunday of Easter

May 5, 2019

“Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing.”

— Revelation 5:12

Catholic Life Insurance Clean Up Day

Catholic Life Insurance is hosting their Join Hands Day on Saturday, May 11th. All students are invited to help trim trees around the church, rectory, playground and cemetery. We also need adults with chainsaws, trucks and trailers to help haul off the excess brush.

We will begin at 8:00am and conclude with a delicious hot dog lunch in Father’s back yard.
Community Service Hours will be given to those students who need them.

Faith Formation Teachers

Want to thank all of our wonderful Faith Formation Teachers for their dedication and service this past school year. Your volunteer efforts do not go unnoticed. We hope all of you return for the next session. Thank you once again and God Bless!!!!

SPANISH MASS For May

To accommodate the Celebration of Confirmation in our Church, the Spanish Mass has been moved to Sunday, May 26th at 11:15am.

Whatever I ask for in prayer is received!!!

Father God, help me to realize that You are in control and that You have me in the palm of Your hands. Allow me to experience Your nature such that whatever I ask for in prayer is received, as I believe in Your holy power.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Gospel today sees Peter and his colleagues after the Resurrection, returning to Galilee and resuming the family business. They are fishing by night. Although it is true that fish feed by night, the mention of darkness here is more about the human spirit than it is about fishing advice. Modern life keeps darkness effectively under control; much of the world has been glowing radiantly through the night for a century. Yet just as surely as the Risen Christ breaks into Peter’s fishing, so does he break into the usual patterns of our own darkness, electric lights notwithstanding. It is Easter, and we are the people of the light.

In our tradition, Evening Prayer, celebrated in monasteries, parishes, cathedrals, and homes everywhere, is a kind of solemn protest against the darkness and its claims, an act of praise for our light-bearing God, and a commitment to carrying that light forward. Sunset is a turning point of our day, felt less acutely in an electrified world, but still an effective reminder that one day darkness overtakes us all. Yet our Eastering has taught us in a hundred ways that the victory belongs to the Bearer of Light. Easter summons us to transform our everyday “blackouts,” perhaps in a way as simple as a whispered prayer of thanks at evening for the blessings of the day.
