FAITH FORMATION NEWS

It is amazing how the Lord provides. It has worked out that we have just the right amount of teachers and assistants. Our K, 1st, 5th, 6th, 7th and 10th grade classes are at maximum capacity. 2nd, 3rd, and 4th only have one empty chair. However, we have one need that has not been abundantly met. We are in need of substitutes. For grades Kinder through 5th we have assistants, so if the teacher is absent, I ask the assistant to teach and get a substitute to assist. I try to only ask you to substitute for a grade that you have a child in, unless you tell me otherwise. Know that if you are asked, you can always say "no". It gives you an opportunity to get to know some of your child's classmates. So if you are willing and able to help in this small way, please contact me either at the Faith Formation building, 830-484-3303 or my cell, 830-391-1015. Thanks, Becky Raabe

Jesus Falls The Third Time

In the past two weeks on three separate occasions after Mass is over we have come across a host lying on the floor of the church. We know this is entirely due to these masks they insist we wear. In order for us to avoid this Father asks that when you receive the host from the Priest or Deacon step aside place it in your mouth and then return back to your seat. We must never forget that this tiny piece of bread is truly the Body of Christ and must be treated with reverence and love. Let's not let Jesus fall again.

The Movie "Fatima"

Thank you everyone who joined us at the movies. The film was very moving and inspirational. I believe several of us were so moved we had to pray the Rosary on the way home. Great Experience.

A Sobering Thought

What wonderful images we have today of the reign of God! Isaiah speaks to us of a great feast—a heavenly feast—a feast of abundance with rich foods and choice wines. It is the Lord's own affair, Isaiah explains, when God will unite all nations, dry every tear, and destroy death forever. Then, too, will the entire earth rejoice in the Lord and bask in God's saving grace.

Jesus speaks of heaven in terms of a feast as well. Here, the kingdom of heaven is likened to a king's wedding feast given for his son. This is a feast of abundance also, with the fattened cattle prepared just so. But many of the people invited don't want to come, so the king invites anyone who would honor his son by their presence there. And Paul tells us that whether we live abundantly or in humble circumstances, we can do all things in the Lord who strengthens us.

Some words from Father Damian during one of our very interesting conversations. He said if you don't know Jesus and you don't have a relationship with Him, one day "You will knock on the door of the Great Feast and Jesus will ask who it is", "You will tell Him your name", AND His response will be "I don't know you". A very sobering thought indeed!

Christmas

I know its a little early. Just wanted to give ya'll something to look forward to. Father Damian gave us the go ahead to hold the Annual Children's Christmas Play. We are so excited and we just wanted ya'll to be excited with us and maybe begin talking to your children about participating. Details at a much much later date.

No More Reservations

In looking at the attendance and how everyone is cooperating with all of the guidelines for social distancing we feel that reservations for attending mass are not required any longer. So many of you have standing reservations and are familiar with your seats so this should not be a problem for you. And those who don't just use your social distancing skills and find a seat that will accommodate you and your family. We will still have the ushers on hand to help with any concerns or guidance. Thank you all for your patience and cooperation through this entire ordeal. Let's continue to be safe and considerate to each other.

Effective after this weekend.

Thank You.
