FAITH FORMATION
NEWS

It is amazing how the Lord provides. It has worked out that we have just the right amount of teachers and assistants. Our K, 1st, 5th, 6th, 7th and 10th grade classes are at maximum capacity. 2nd, 3rd, and 4th only have one empty chair. However, we have one need that has not been abundantly met. We are in need of substitutes. For grades Kinder through 5th we have assistants, so if the teacher is absent, I ask the assistant to teach and get a substitute to assist. I try to only ask you to substitute for a grade that you have a child in, unless you tell me otherwise. Know that if you are asked, you can always say "no". It gives you an opportunity to get to know some of your child's classmates. So if you are willing and able to help in this small way, please contact me either at the Faith Formation building, 830-484-3303 or my cell, 830-391-1015. Thanks, Becky Raabe

Hear Those Beautiful Sounds

These past couple of weekends we've been so happy to hear the sounds from babies and children during Mass. Their cries, their laughter, their trips to the restroom. All so wonderful to see and hear. Families returning to church to share in the Living Word. Makes me wanna cry.

SAINTS SIMON AND JUDE, APOSTLES October 28

Saint Jude, apostle and . . . Hollywood success story? Indeed! Beyond Simon's being a "Zealot" for Israel's liberation and Jude's question about Jesus revealing himself (John 14:22), no historic facts are known about either saint. But Saint Jude's well-known patronage of lost causes and hopeless cases is largely due to a desperate vow made just before World War II by a struggling entertainer, the son of Arab-American immigrants, Danny Thomas. Unemployed, his wife about to give birth, Danny, attending Mass, impulsively donated his last seven dollars to the collection, promising: "Saint Jude, if you help me find my way in life, I will build a shrine in your honor!" Older Americans remember well Danny's long, successful movie and television career. Grateful parents worldwide know the miracles that have taken place for fifty years at his Saint Jude Children's Research Hospital, where needy children are cared for regardless of race, religion, or financial resources, and monumental advances continue in healing and preventing pediatric cancers and catastrophic childhood diseases. A living, life-giving partnership is this "Communion of Saints": Simon, Jude, Danny Thomas—us!

Votive Candles

On Friday, Oct. 30th, the votive candles that are lit will be extinguished long enough for the ceiling above to get a fresh coat of paint. Should be done some time early morning. We will try to relight the candles that we put out once we get the go ahead from the painter. Thanks for understanding.

Knights of Columbus Golf Tournament

LIVING JUSTLY

"You give that back right now!" How many of us have heard that line, probably more than once, as we were growing up? We come home with the trophy of what we thought was a really sweet deal, only to have our parents undo our profits by making us return the spoils. They had a different idea of what constituted a "fair trade agreement." Justice in our dealings with others continues to be an important measure of our character, and like a good parent, God cares very much about how we treat each other and about how others treat us. God hears the cry of the poor, and answers the call of the oppressed. God's beloved children are not to behave like bullies.

Walking down the isle at the grocery store and a guy screamed at me "didn't you see the arrows" I ducked and said "I didn't even see the Indians"
