Haley White

Haley has been a consistent direct support professional for H.R. Choices! She does a great job paying attention to detail and is great at reporting information to the appropriate people to make sure that things are taken care of. Haley works great with her coworkers to make sure shifts are covered and to help whenever she is needed and available. Haley goes above and beyond to make sure that the ladies get one-on-one attention and really engages with them and the things they enjoy! Haley does well with paperwork and is always ready to take any advice to make her better at her job!

We value and appreciate your commitment to this company.

Thank you for all your hard work, Haley, you deserve this honor.
