Keynote Speaker

Sarah Schieber

Sarah Schieber, host of The Morning Perk on the Promise FM, has the ability to reach into the circumstances of her life and translate her experiences into deep encouragement for all her believers. She has a way of relating to others that captivates audiences and challenges them toward a deeper, more sustaining walk with the Lord. Sarah had the honor of producing three full-length albums, including the song "Christmas in Heaven," which charted on both the National Christian Radio charts and Billboard. She has also released her first book, "A Journey Called Grief."

Worship Leader

Paula Stitt

Paula Stitt is a gifted musician and experienced worship leader on staff in the Worship Arts Ministry at Kentwood Community Church in Kentwood, Michigan. Paula shines as a talented accompanist for choral classes, mentoring young musicians and worship leaders, as well as providing musical leadership in various ways throughout the church year. Paula lives in Hudsonville, Michigan, with her husband Tim. They have two married children and a delightful grandson. Family is the backbone of their lives. She evidences a genuine love for the Lord, as well as expressing God's boundless love and faithfulness in her songs.
