

Virginia Williams

Virginia Williams is the president and CEO of Living Waters Community. Virginia is committed to the mission of LWCO and she is determined to change her community one child at a time. Virginia holds Associate Degrees in Engineering Technology and Christian Thought, a Bachelor's Degree with a double major of Management and Marketing and a MBA with a double concentration in Management and Marketing. Virginia is also a Certified Life Coach and an Ordained Pastor.

Candice Woods

Candice Woods is the Director of Outreach for Living Waters Community Outreach. Candice is committed to servicing youth and families in the community. Candice has been involved in community outreach for over 25 years. Candice has helped organize and set up community food pantries and resources for the community in Detroit, Michigan and Jacksonville, North Carolina. Candice is determined to make a difference in the community, that will impact generations to come for the better.

Angilean Fleming LLMSW, CAADC-DP

Angilean Fleming works with adolescents, men and women of all ages providing individual therapy, group therapy with an emphasis on self-awareness, emotional regulation, and coping skills. Angilean treats people who experience symptoms of substance use disorder, anxiety, depression, identity concerns, life adjustment difficulties, stress management, mood disorders, and career concerns. Angilean is well versed in assisting people with finding a path to peace and joy through a variety of modalities including but not limited to Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, Emotion Focused Therapy, Solution Focused Therapy, Motivational Interviewing, Dialectical Behavior Therapy, and Christian Focused Therapy.