

Who We Are?

We are a purpose driven community based in Miami. Our goal is to share the immense local talent with the rest of the world.

ART - FASHION - PURPOSE - COMMUNITY - GIVING BACK

Where Art meets Fashion

WE STRIVE TO BE THE BEST AT WHO WE ARE AND SHARE IT WITH THE WORLD

Founder

The founder of Art Bound Miami,- Yoeli Goldstein has built a community around his values,- giving back and supporting the creative endeavors of all sorts. Throughout years he has been making a great impact via several charitable organizations: - M.A.R.C.H (mother alone raising children) and most recently Les Couleurs Charity,- organization empowering underprivileged children through arts education in Haiti and Mexico.

Here in Miami, his goal is to connect various creative communities, shine the bright light on their talents, skills and passions. Art Bound Miami is a hub where fashion will meet performing arts, where music will compliment visual arts and where art collectors will discover the most exciting, young emerging local artists, because Miami has talent and it must be shared with the world.
