14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME July 5, 2026

Matthew 11:25-30

This weekend, our nation celebrates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Unlike most nations, the United States was not founded primarily on a shared ethnicity, language, or culture. Instead, our founders built a political community out of diverse peoples united by a shared vision of liberty. That vision echoes something deep in the Christian mystery revealed in today's Gospel. Jesus returns to his hometown. The people see only what is familiar: the carpenter, the son of Mary, one of their own. As Mark tells us, "They took offense at him. Jesus said, 'A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.'" Their narrow vision blinds them. Jesus has come to inaugurate a new communion that transcends geography, bloodlines, and culture. He has come to unite all people in himself.

At its best, America's national unity reflects this possibility, which fully subsists only in the Catholic Church. Our unity is not based on ancestry or tribe, but on a shared commitment to higher ideals. For this reason, we can love our country with gratitude while situating patriotism within the broader horizon of faith.

Rooted in Christ, we are less vulnerable to the unholy tribalism that threatens civic life and faith. This weekend, let us thank God for our nation and pray that we also live as citizens of Heaven in Jesus Christ.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Can Catholics Gamble?

Question: The Bible says that Jesus condemned gambling, but I notice that so many parishes have them at festivals and other events. What's correct?

Answer:

Although Jesus speaks of our relationship with material wealth and the very human struggle with greed, the gospels do not include any specific instructions related to gambling. At the same time, the Church is very sensitive to the needs of those who might struggle with an addiction to gambling, and pastoral care should always be offered to those who struggle with this reality in their life.

While it is true that many parish or school communities include gambling or games of chance in festivals and fundraisers (e.g. bingo, roulette, ring tossing, dunking booths, etc.), there is nothing inherently wrong these sorts of events, given they are played fairly and within the limits of reason are not morally objectionable. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us: "Games of chance (card games, etc.) or wagers are not in themselves contrary to justice. They become morally unacceptable when they deprive someone of what is necessary to provide for his needs and those of others" (no. 2413).

As in all things, moderation and a sense of healthy limits should be applied to gambling and games of chance. For those who find themselves living with addiction to gambling, help is available in various 12-step and addiction recovery programs.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO - ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA (Gospel Meditations)

5 de julio de 2026

XIV Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Mateo 11:25-30

¿Pueden los católicos apostar?

Acuérdate
SEÑOR, DE TU MISERICORDIA

Pregunta: La Biblia dice que Jesús condenó los juegos de azar, pero noto que muchas parroquias los tienen en festivales y otros eventos. ¿Qué es correcto?

Respuesta:

Aunque Jesús habla de nuestra relación con la riqueza material y la lucha muy humana con la codicia, los evangelios no incluyen ninguna instrucción específica relacionada con el juego. Al mismo tiempo, la Iglesia es muy sensible a las necesidades de aquellos que pueden luchar contra la adicción al juego, y siempre se debe ofrecer atención pastoral a aquellos que luchan con esta realidad en su vida.

Si bien es cierto que muchas comunidades parroquiales o escolares incluyen apuestas o juegos de azar en festivales y eventos para recaudar fondos (por ejemplo, bingo, ruleta, lanzamiento de anillos, cabinas de mojar, etc.), no hay nada intrínsecamente malo en este tipo de eventos, dado que se juegan justamente y dentro de los límites de la razón no son moralmente objetables. Como nos recuerda el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica:

“Los juegos de azar (juegos de naipes, etc.) o las apuestas no son en sí mismos contrarios a la justicia. Se vuelven moralmente inaceptables cuando privan a alguien de lo necesario para satisfacer sus necesidades y las de los demás” (n. 2413).

Como en todas las cosas, se debe aplicar la moderación y un sano sentido de los límites a los juegos de azar y apuestas.

Para aquellos que viven con la adicción al juego, hay ayuda disponible en varios programas de 12 pasos y recuperación de la adicción. ©LPi
