OUR MISSION
We the people of St. Martha Catholic Church, are called to conversion of our entire person in Jesus Christ and His compassion for others. Our community life and worship is based on the Bible, the sacraments, and the teaching of the Catholic Church. Living the love of Christ impacts our moral, intellectual, and religious life and makes us a caring community that brings hope to our families, neighborhood and society.

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 25, 2026

Matthew 22:34-40

When I was in seventh grade, like most boys of that age, I was constantly hungry. I could eat at any hour of the day. Then I fell head over heels for a classmate named Kristin. One evening, while lying on my bed and pondering her perfections, my mom called me to dinner. For the first time in my adolescent life, I remember thinking: "I'm not hungry." My heart longed for Kristin more than my stomach for food. Now, I wouldn't confuse adolescent infatuation with mature love. But it was an experience of how love can reorder everything in our lives.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart" (Matthew 22:37). He is not issuing a burden or a moral goal for high achievers. He is naming the deepest orientation of the human heart. We were made for love so great that it gathers every other love into itself. Jesus does not ask us to love less the persons or things that attract us. Rather, he wants our love for God to be so total and intense that we love everything and everyone else because we love him so much.

Do we believe that such a love is possible for us? Because of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, it is! It is readily available to us. Let's repent of our half-hearted love for God and ask Him to fill our hearts to the brim with divine love.

— Father John Muir©LPi

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Halloween

Question:

Is Halloween a pagan holiday or a Catholic one?

Answer:

The short answer: nowadays, a little bit of both. But it wasn't always that way. Halloween and All Saints' Day are closely connected. In the 800s, the Catholic Church began celebrating All Saints' Day. It was originally called All Hallow's Day or Hallowmas. The celebration began early on All Hallows' Eve. But if Halloween is really about the saints in all their victorious glory, where do we get haunted houses, costumes, and pranks?

All Saints' Day became associated with the other deceased rather quickly. November 2nd is All Souls Day, where we pray for the souls in purgatory. Throughout the European world, especially with the Celtic and Germanic peoples, the dead were honored in the autumn months. The Celtic pagan celebration of Samhain had its own folk rituals and occurred around the same time as these Catholic feast days.

Within the last few hundred years, this included dressing in disguise and going door to door, asking for food in exchange for a rhyme or poem. Some people masqueraded as "dark" spirits and pulled pranks on others. Today's celebration of Halloween tends to take on these later practices, rather than the original meaning of celebrating the saints. But remember ... this feast was Catholic first! ©LPi

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

El Halloween

Pregunta:
¿Halloween es una fiesta pagana o católica?

Respuesta:
La respuesta corta: hoy en día, un poco de ambos. Pero no siempre fue así. Halloween y el Día de Todos los Santos están estrechamente relacionados. En el año 800, la Iglesia Católica comenzó a celebrar el Día de Todos los Santos. Originalmente se llamaba "All Hallow's Day" (en inglés) o Hallowmas. La celebración comenzó temprano en la víspera de Todos los Santos. Pero si Halloween se trata realmente de los santos en toda su gloria victoriosa, ¿dónde conseguimos casas embrujadas, disfraces y bromas?

El Día de Todos los Santos se asoció con los otros difuntos con bastante rapidez. El 2 de noviembre es el Día de los Fieles Difuntos, donde rezamos por las almas del purgatorio. En todo el mundo europeo, especialmente con los pueblos celtas y germánicos, los muertos eran honrados en los meses de otoño. La celebración pagana celta de Samhain tenía sus propios rituales folclóricos y ocurría casi al mismo tiempo que estas fiestas católicas.

En los últimos cientos de años, esto incluía disfrazarse e ir de puerta en puerta, pidiendo comida a cambio de una rima o un poema. Algunas personas se disfrazaban de espíritus "oscuros" y hacían bromas a los demás. La celebración actual de Halloween tiende a adoptar estas prácticas posteriores, en lugar del significado original de celebrar a los santos. Pero recuerda... ¡esta fiesta fue católica primero! ©LPi
