GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

March 23, 2025

3rd Sunday of Lent

John 4:5-42

My childhood best friend was Xander Price. He was the fastest runner in school, an excellent baseball player and Jewish. Though his family wasn't intensely religious, I felt totally at home with them despite our religious differences. Everything about their Judaism seemed to undergird and strengthen my own experience of being a Catholic. I knew they didn't believe in Jesus like my family did, but I intuited somehow that Jesus was "hiding" in their religion. Like a cat moving under a blanket, ready to emerge at any moment, the Lord was hidden there in a special way.

In the Gospel for this third Sunday of Lent, Jesus says, “For if you had believed Moses, you would have believed me, for he wrote of me” (John 5:46). Stunning words, those. Moses wrote about Jesus. The way therefore that we come to know and believe in Jesus is to discover him lurking in Moses' writings. The Hebrew Scripture is the wonderful womb in which Jesus gestates within a host of images: Adam, Isaac, David, Melchizedek, the Temple, sacrificed lambs, prophets and so on. Right now, in your parish's OCIA program, soon-to-be baptized people are carefully studying where Jesus is in the writings of Moses, so that they may believe in him. This works for all of us, too, who wish to deepen our knowledge and love of Jesus.

Lenten challenge: Take some time to prayerfully study one of the images of Jesus listed above in the Old Testament. Identify which one you find compelling and consider why this is so. If you don't know where to start, begin with the prophet Jeremiah as an image of Jesus.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Mortal versus Venial Sin

Question:

What is the difference between mortal and venial sin?

Answer:

Sin is a deliberate thought, word, action, or omission contrary to God's law. Since the beginnings of the Church, sin has been distinguished by its gravity. "Grave matter" is traditionally defined by the Ten Commandments. If a person commits a grave sin with full knowledge of the action's evil and with the complete consent of their will, this is a mortal sin. The effects of mortal sin are grave – the loss of sanctifying grace, which can be restored by a fresh outpouring of God's mercy in the sacrament of Reconciliation.

Venial sin does not fit one or more of these conditions (for example, a less serious matter still freely chosen or grave matter committed while under force or ignorance of God's law). The effects of venial sin – while still damaging to the human heart and human society – are less severe. Even so, smaller sins build habits, which can obstruct our growth in virtue. When we are serious about following Jesus, we should do our best to avoid all sin, whether large or small!

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

Pecado Mortal Versus Pecado Venial

Pregunta:

¿Cuál es la diferencia entre el pecado mortal y el venial?

Respuesta:

El pecado es un pensamiento, palabra, acción u omisión deliberada contraria a la ley de Dios. Desde los inicios de la Iglesia, el pecado se ha distinguido por su gravedad. La "materia grave" se define tradicionalmente en los Diez Mandamientos. Si una persona comete un pecado grave con pleno conocimiento de la maldad de la acción y con el completo consentimiento de su voluntad, esto es un pecado mortal. Los efectos del pecado mortal son graves: la pérdida de la gracia santificante, que puede ser restaurada por una nueva efusión de la misericordia de Dios en el sacramento de la Reconciliación.

El pecado venial no se ajusta a una o más de estas condiciones (por ejemplo, un asunto menos grave aún elegido libremente o un asunto grave cometido a la fuerza o por la ignorancia de la ley de Dios). Los efectos del pecado venial, aunque siguen dañando el corazón humano y la sociedad humana, son menos graves. Aun así, los pecados más pequeños crean hábitos, que pueden obstruir nuestro crecimiento en la virtud. Cuando nos tomamos en serio seguir a Jesús, debemos hacer todo lo posible por evitar todo pecado, ya sea grande o pequeño. ©LPi
