ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

April 21, 2024

4th Sunday of Easter

Recently I was with my little dog Libby at a retreat center in the Arizona desert. I sat in a chair near a ravine filled with shrubs. Unbeknownst to me, Libby wandered down there and disappeared. Suddenly an animal's wild shriek erupted from the area. Without thinking, I bolted down into the ravine fully expecting to see coyotes, javelinas, or rattlesnakes. I didn't care. I desperately wanted to get Libby out of there, without any self-regard. Before I could face whatever danger lay hidden, my dog blissfully trotted out from an entirely different area, utterly unaware that I had (quite heroically) just placed my life on the line.

When the adrenaline wore off, I thought to myself: how far would I have been willing to go to save her? I don't know. But I do know, if I had literally died, my friends and family would have certainly thought me insane for dying for a dog. No offense, Libby.

How passionately Jesus wants us to know him and his willingness to die for us! This week he says, "I know my own and my own know me," and "I lay down my life for the sheep." Here we encounter an insanely excessive love for us. Christianity is a relationship and not simply a religion or ethical code. In Jesus, God rescues and saves us. He laid down his life for you and me — and he has taken it up again. So often we are like Libby — blissfully ignorant of the reality of both our spiritual danger and his saving love. This Easter season, the risen Jesus calls us to be more conscious than ever before about his love. He never ceases to lay down his life for us.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Reading the Bible

Question:

What is unique or different about the way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible?

Answer:

Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectionary. The Lectionary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading.

These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would have not been possible before. A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this conversation among the readings, enabling us to zero in on what this unique combination of God's word has to say to us this particular Sunday.

Next time you attend Sunday liturgy, try reading the Scripture ahead of time and see how this new relationship among the readings addresses and challenges you to be a better Christian here and now.

Saint of the week

St. Paschal Baylón was a devout Spanish monk. In his vocation as a lay brother, he worked as a chef, porter, gardener, and official beggar. He often gave so much to the poor that his brothers tried to limit his generosity. Because of his devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, he is the Patron Saint of Eucharistic Congresses and Societies.

Prayer of the Good Shepherd

Dear Lord,
 You are my Shepherd, a Good Shepherd, who leads in ways beyond my understanding. Guide me in the paths You would have me go.
 Amen.

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

Leyendo la Biblia

Pregunta:

¿Qué es único o diferente en la forma en que los católicos leen y están expuestos a la Biblia?

Respuesta:

Los católicos están expuestos a las Escrituras principalmente a través de las lecturas dominicales de un libro conocido como el Leccionario. El Leccionario es un libro de pasajes seleccionados de la Biblia ambientados en el contexto de un tiempo litúrgico, como el Adviento, la Cuaresma o el tiempo ordinario. Hay cuatro lecturas asignadas a cualquier domingo: la primera lectura (generalmente del Antiguo Testamento), el salmo responsorial, la segunda lectura (generalmente de una carta del Nuevo Testamento) y la lectura del Evangelio.

Estas lecturas juntas les dan un nuevo contexto. Las lecturas seleccionadas se relacionan entre sí de una manera única que no está presente en el texto bíblico mismo. Al estar muy cerca unas de otras, estas lecturas ahora tienen la oportunidad de conversar entre sí de una manera que antes no hubiera sido posible. Un homilista presta atención a las cuatro lecturas, preparando una reflexión que habla de esta conversación entre las lecturas, permitiéndonos concentrarnos en lo que esta combinación única de la palabra de Dios tiene para decirnos este domingo en particular.

La próxima vez que asistas a la liturgia dominical, intenta leer las Escrituras con anticipación y observa cómo esta nueva relación entre las lecturas te dirige y te desafía a ser un mejor cristiano aquí y ahora.
