GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 20, 2025

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 10:38-42

One of my close friends is a hermit priest who lives on a desert mountain. Recently I found myself in a group conversation about him. One vehemently objected, "What does he do up there all day? Nothing! Priests are down here working, running parishes, making a difference, and he...he is doing nothing! What a waste." The words dripped with indignation and resentment. Most of the group quietly nodded in silent agreement. Were they correct?

No! To see why, consider a similar scenario in this week's gospel. Jesus visits his friends Martha and Mary. A hardworking and exasperated Martha complains to Jesus that her sister is attending to him rather than to urgent household tasks. Our Lord, rather than praising hospitality, explicitly celebrates the less-productive sister for doing the "one necessary thing." He praises her for she "has chosen the better part" (Luke 10:42). Mary is busy doing what matters.

Before we freak out like Martha, consider that all work—domestic, manual, professional, ministerial, contemplative—is done to help us (sooner or later) to experience the love that makes us happy. We should be thankful for those who focus on the "better part" of radical, ceaseless prayer. They invite us to remember the purpose of all work is the enjoyment of love. Contemplatives, hermits, anyone fervently committed to prayer—they invite us to cast aside our forgetful, resentful, and self-aggrandizing attitudes in exchange for hearts ready to do what is finally necessary.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Mary Magdalene

Question:

July 22 is the feast of Mary Magdalene. I've heard a lot of stories about her, but who was she really?

Answer:

Mary Magdalene has been the subject of speculation and scholarship over the last 2,000 years. Mary Magdalene makes her first named appearance in Luke 8:2. She is one of several women following Jesus. Luke specifically mentions that Mary had previously been delivered from demonic possession. Whatever her life looked like before she met Jesus, it wasn't good! Because of this association with being a repentant sinner, Mary Magdalene has been associated with other similar stories in the Gospel, such as the woman caught in adultery or the woman who bathes Jesus' feet with her tears.

Mary Magdalene shows up again by name at the end of the Gospels, when she stands with the Blessed Virgin Mary at the foot of the Cross. Mary is also present in the garden of the resurrection. She is one of the women who goes to bring spices to Jesus' tomb, where they find the stone rolled away. Mary stays in the garden weeping, believing his body has been stolen. Jesus approaches her and calls her by name, and she becomes the first witness to the resurrection! While many of the details of Mary Magdalene's life have been lost to time, she is an example of powerful conversion, deep faith, and intimate love for Christ. @LPi

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

María Magdalena

Pregunta:

El 22 de julio es la fiesta de María Magdalena. He escuchado muchas historias sobre ella, pero ¿quién era realmente?

Respuesta:

María Magdalena ha sido objeto de especulación y erudición durante los últimos 2,000 años. María Magdalena hace su primera aparición en Lucas 8:2. Ella es una de varias mujeres que siguen a Jesús. Lucas menciona específicamente que María había sido liberada previamente de la posesión demoníaca. Se desconoce como haya sido su vida antes de conocer a Jesús, pero se sabe que ¡no era buena! Debido a esta asociación con ser una pecadora arrepentida, María Magdalena ha sido asociada con otras historias similares en el Evangelio, como la mujer sorprendida en adulterio o la mujer que lava los pies de Jesús con sus lágrimas.

María Magdalena aparece de nuevo por su nombre al final de los Evangelios, cuando está con la Santísima Virgen María al pie de la Cruz. María también está presente en el huerto de la resurrección. Ella es una de las mujeres que va a llevar especias a la tumba de Jesús, donde encuentran la piedra removida. María se queda en el jardín llorando, creyendo que su cuerpo ha sido robado. Jesús se acerca a ella y la llama por su nombre, ¡y ella se convierte en la primera testigo de la resurrección! Si bien muchos de los detalles de la vida de María Magdalena se han perdido en el tiempo, ella es un ejemplo de poderosa conversión, de profunda fe y amor íntimo por Cristo.
