ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 21, 2024

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Burnout. Recent studies suggest that roughly two-thirds of doctors and nurses have signs of it. You probably know what burnout is: long-term stress leading to emotional exhaustion and a lack of a sense of personal accomplishment. Burnout can threaten anyone who tries to seriously serve and love others. How does our faith inform this challenging experience, and how do we find refreshment?

The apostles face something like burnout this week in Mark 6. They are run down from their missionary work, and Jesus says, “Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while.” For them, and for us, it takes humility to intentionally rest. It means the world can go on without us. It stings our pride to admit God is necessary and we are not. Choosing to leave our good work to be with him — whatever the cost — is an act of humble faith. And that trust in God begins to revive us.

But there’s more to it. Hilariously, Mark tells us that throngs of needy people find out where the apostles are going and arrive ahead of them. Imagine the exasperation of the burnt-out apostles. “Can we please get a minute to ourselves? This is not healthy!” And Jesus seems to encourage the boundary violation by telling his frayed followers to feed the crowd. Look: once we move into humble rest, he calls us to more work, because we are made for love, not for rest. But Jesus does the vast bulk of the labor. He himself is the one who multiplies the small offering until everyone is satisfied.

What finally gives our heart rest isn’t more vacation time. It’s experiencing the super abundant generosity of God for us and those whom we serve.

— Father John Muir ©LPI

Saint of the week

St. Angela of Foligno (c. 1248-1309), sometimes called the "Teacher of Theologians," Angela's first life as a wife and mother gave her unique insights. Her path to sainthood was not through perfection but through penitence and charity. She experienced periods of certainty and doubt, temptation and steadfastness.

Prayer to the Shepherd

My Good Shepherd, There are so many things I don't understand about the paths where you lead and the pastures where you release me. But I believe that you are a Good Shepherd. I have known your protection and provision in so many ways. Please keep me under your care. Amen.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Daily Faith

Question:

What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer:

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people.

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

Fe Diaria

Pregunta:

¿Qué puedo hacer para ayudar a nuestra familia a practicar nuestra fe todos los días?

Respuesta:

Algunas familias practican su religión juntas como un evento más en su agenda: ir a la iglesia, observar la Cuaresma, ayudar en el picnic parroquial, ir a una reunión, trabajar como voluntario, hacer su confesión, usar su sobre... Pero el enfoque debe centrarse en quiénes somos: el pueblo de Dios, en relación con él, amados, perdonados, redimidos y llamados a vivir y proclamar el Evangelio. Nuestra conciencia de la presencia de Dios y nuestro sentido de misión están respaldados por los rituales, celebraciones y tradiciones diarias que nos ayudan a mantenernos enfocados. Compartir nuestra fe nos fortalece y aclara las creencias y valores de la vida cristiana.

Las prácticas familiares diarias incluyen tiempo para la oración: antes de las comidas, antes de acostarse, antes de reuniones y actividades importantes. Asistan juntos a la misa dominical y luego hablen sobre la homilía. Crea celebraciones familiares para días santos y festivos. Haz de la religión una parte habitual de tus conversaciones. Incluye a los demás, especialmente a los ancianos y a los menos afortunados, en tus actividades y esfuerzos caritativos. Al aplicar las virtudes de la fe, la esperanza y el amor a cada día, la fe se vuelve parte de quién es tu familia. Influye en cómo actúas hacia los demás, qué valoras y qué tan consciente eres de Dios. La fe es la levadura de vida que nos ayuda a todos a elevarnos a nuestro llamado y dignidad como pueblo de Dios. ©LPi
