First Baptist Church is an open and caring family of faith where worship is central and faith engages both heart and mind. We are warmly ecumenical, delight in our diversity, and cherish our Baptist heritage of freedom. We are called by Christ to share God's love with the campus, community, and the world.

As we seek to follow the way of Jesus, we welcome all people to fully participate in our fellowship: all ages, colors, backgrounds, political affiliations, and physical and mental abilities; male and female, gay and straight, rich and poor, single and married. We are all God's children, and all are welcome here.

Pastor's Word

The season of Lent begins on February 18 with Ash Wednesday. Our Ash Wednesday service will include meditative music, scripture, prayer, silence, and ashes. We will also have a weekly soup supper and study through the season of Lent. Observing Lent as a time of reflection and renewal makes the joy of Easter all the greater.

Frederick Buechner writes:

In many cultures there is an ancient custom of giving a tenth of each year's income to some holy use. For Christians to observe the forty days of Lent is to do the same thing with roughly a tenth of each year's days. After being baptized by John in the river Jordan, Jesus went off alone into the wilderness where he spent forty days asking himself the question what it meant to be Jesus. During Lent, Christians are supposed to ask one way or another what it means to be themselves.

If you had to bet everything you have on whether there is a God or whether there isn't, which side would get your money and why?

When you look at your face in the mirror, what do you see in it that you most like and what do you see in it that you most deplore?

If you had only one last message to leave to the handful of people who are most important to you, what would it be in twenty-five words or less?

Of all the things you have done in your life, which is the one you most like to undo? Which is the one that makes you happiest to remember?

Is there any person in the world, or any cause, that, if circumstances called for it, you would be willing to die for?

To hear yourself try to answer questions like these is to begin to hear something not only of who you are but of both what you are becoming and what you are failing to become. It can be a pretty depressing business all in all, but if sackcloth and ashes are at the start of it, something like Easter may be at the end.

I invite you to join us at 6 pm on Ash Wednesday, February 18, as we begin our journey through Lent.

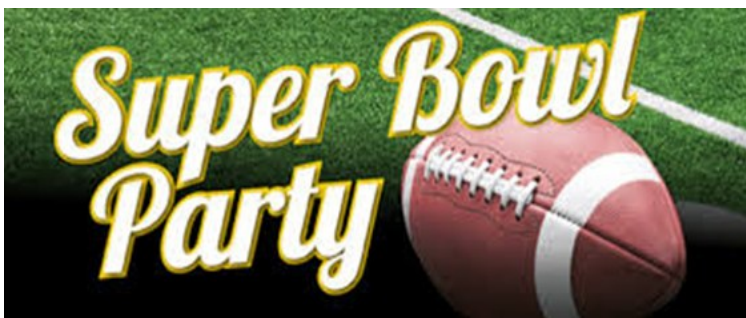

Blessings,
Dave

Our Annual Cook-off is Sunday, February 22 at 6 pm

In honor of our nation's 250th birthday, this year's theme is "Red, White and Blue." Entries must include red, white, and/or blue ingredients. The possibilities are wide open – main course, side dish, dessert, appetizer, whatever you would like to bring. Contestants are only limited by needing to include red, white, and/or blue ingredients.

We need both contestants and "testers" for the cookoff! Everyone is welcome, whether they bring a dish or not. And this is a good chance to invite a friend!

The way it works is that we sample as many dishes as we wish and then vote for our favorites with cash, with all proceeds going to a mission effort. Bring coins, bills, and checks (but no pennies please.) The proceeds go to a mission cause each year – we have supported church mission trips, denominational offerings, disaster relief, and local causes. This year the funds will go to SHOP, the food pantry for Iowa State students. Come join us on February 22 for a great evening!

AMOS “We The People” Campaign

2026 marks the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. It is also the 30th anniversary of AMOS (A Mid-Iowa Organizing Strategy). Our church is one of 40 institutional members of AMOS, a community organizing group that seeks to build a community where everyone can flourish.

For its 30th anniversary, AMOS is embarking on a “We the People” campaign. Across our AMOS institutions we will be launching small group “house meetings” - listening sessions to engage people both within and beyond the walls of our organizations.

From the Declaration of Independence:

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

250 years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence, we will be asking Iowans to share their own stories about barriers to safety and happiness facing their loved ones today. These small group house meetings will generate AMOS' issue agenda and build organized people power for our August 30, 2026 We the People Convention in Clive, where we will gather 1000 Iowans from FBC and other AMOS member institutions.

Our church will be holding house meetings in the near future – be watching for details. We will hold these small groups gatherings following worship on a Sunday morning. If you have questions or would be willing to help lead one of these meetings, please see Beth Douglass, Lucille Taylor, or Pastor Dave.

We will share a simple meal each week, followed by our Lenten Study. We will be using the resource Will You Come and Follow Me: A Lenten Study on Hymns. Our conversation will focus around a different hymn each week including the background of the hymn and information on the hymn writer. Of course we will sing each hymn, and our conversation will include how each hymn speaks to us now in our daily lives and in our community.
