Advent Prayer of the Month:

"A Light to Guide, A Hope to Hold "

Adapted from Church Assistant: Liturgy, Bible Study, Prayer

God of light and revelation, we step into this new year carrying both memories and hopes, aware of the burdens we've known and the grace that has kept us. As the season of Epiphany unfolds, remind us that your light still shines in unexpected places. When direction feels unclear, be the star that leads us forward. Teach us to move not in fear but in faith, trusting that your Spirit is already ahead of us. May your wisdom guide our decisions and your love dwell deeply in our communities. Let this year be marked not just by what we do, but by how we follow—more boldly, more humbly, more faithfully. And like the wise ones of old, may we seek you with open hearts and return changed. In the name of Jesus, our Light and our Way, we pray. Amen.

Check out today's passage from
"Our Daily Bread" to get centered for Worship.

Prelude

† Bringing in the Light | Processional

Welcome Pastor Cynthia Williams

† CALL TO WORSHIP De Anna Conover

One: Come, people of the Light—this is not just a new year; this is a sacred beginning. God is doing a new thing, and the Spirit is already moving.

Many: We come with wonder and with longing, trusting that the God who calls us by name is still making a way in the wilderness.

One: The prophet declares, "Here is my servant, in whom I delight." God's justice is gentle, God's faithfulness sure. Even when the flame is faint, God does not snuff it out.

Many: We come holding light and questions, burdens and praise. We believe that even when we cannot see the road, God walks beside us.

One: God promises to open blind eyes and release captive hearts. This season is not about returning to what was—but receiving what can be.

Many: We come with readiness for the unexpected, trusting that the Spirit will stir and stretch us into something new.

One: So bring your whole self—your vision and your weariness, your fire and your faith. This is Epiphany, and the glory of God is still being revealed.

Many: We show up open, expecting, and ready. A new season has begun, and we will not leave unchanged. Come, let us worship the God who shines, speaks, and sets us free. Amen.

Sharing of the Meal

Please come forward as the ushers direct to receive by intinction: taking a piece of bread and dipping it into the cup.

Prayer of Thanksgiving (In Unison)

Gracious and loving God, We thank You for this holy meal, for the bread that strengthens us and the cup that reminds us we are never alone. You have met us at the table with mercy, with mystery, and with joy. As we rise from this feast, may we carry Your light into the world. Let what we've received nourish our souls, deepen our faith, and empower our love. In the name of Jesus, who is still revealed in the breaking of the bread, Amen.

† Benediction with Blessings Pastor Cynthia Williams

Prayer of Confession (In Unison)
Loving God, We confess that we often carry the old into the new—old fears, old habits, old hurts. We resist change and hesitate to trust Your leading. But You are the God of fresh starts and second chances. Forgive us where we’ve turned away. Heal what still aches. Lead us into this new season with open hearts and willing spirits. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

Words of Assurance Pastor Cynthia Williams

One: Hear the good news: God’s mercy is steady, God’s grace is sure, and God’s light still shines. In Christ, we are forgiven and made new.

Many: Thanks be to God—renewed, restored, and ready for the journey ahead. Amen.

Service of Word and Table (The Great Thanksgiving)

The Lord be with you. And also, with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

...We praise your name and join their unending hymn Holy, holy, holy Lord, God, and power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

...as we proclaim the mystery of faith Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

...now and forever. Amen.

And now, with the confidence of children of God, let us pray:

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory forever. Amen

Centering Prayer (In Unison) De Anna Conover

God of the new and the now, As we enter this sacred year, we come with open hearts and quiet hopes. You are not just starting a calendar—you are stirring a calling. You have promised to walk with us, to light the path before us, and to hold us steady as we step into what’s next. Speak to the tender parts of us that long for change. Strengthen our spirits where we feel uncertain. And awaken our imagination for the justice, joy, and healing You are bringing to life. In Jesus’ name, who is Light and Liberation, Amen.

Passing of the Peace

De Anna Conover

Let us offer one another signs of reconciliation, peace, and love. Saying, to our neighbors, “the peace of Christ be with you,” the response is, “And also with you!”

Walk With Me

AA/HH 563

*I want Jesus to walk with me; I want Jesus to walk with me
All along my pilgrim journey, Lord I want Jesus to walk with me

In my trials, Lord walk with me; In my trials, Lord walk with me
When the shades of life are failing, Lord I want Jesus to walk with me

Pray with me Lord, pray with me; Pray with me Lord, pray with me
All long my, pilgrim journey, Lord I want Jesus, to pray with me*

† Scripture Lesson

Isaiah 42:1-16 (NRSVue)

David Webb

Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations 2 He will not cry out or lift up his voice or make it heard in the street;

† Scripture Lesson

Isaiah 42:1-16 (NRSVue)-cont’d

David Webb

3 a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. 4 He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth, and the coastlands wait for his teaching. 5 Thus says God, the Lord, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it: 6 I am the Lord; I have called you in righteousness; I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations, 7 to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness. 8 I am the Lord; that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to idols. 9 See, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth, I tell you of them. 10 Sing to the Lord a new song, his praise from the end of the earth! Let the sea roar and all that fills it, the coastlands and their inhabitants. 11 Let the desert and its towns lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar inhabits; let the inhabitants of Sela shout for joy; let them shout from the tops of the mountains. 12 Let them give glory to the Lord and declare his praise in the coastlands. 13 The Lord goes forth like a soldier; like a warrior he stirs up his fury; he cries out; he shouts aloud; he shows himself mighty against his foes. 14 For a long time I have held my peace; I have kept still and restrained myself; now I will cry out like a woman in labor; I will gasp and pant. 15 I will lay waste mountains and hills and dry up all their herbage; I will turn the rivers into islands and dry up the pools. 16 I will lead the blind by a road they do not know; by paths they have not known I will guide them. I will turn the darkness before them into light, the rough places into level ground. These are the things I will do, and I will not forsake them.

Invitation for Prayer

Call to Confession

Pastor Cynthia Williams

A new year has begun, but the truth remains—we still miss the mark, still fall short, still need grace. God’s light reveals not only what is new, but what still needs healing. The good news is this: God’s mercy is new every morning. Let us come honestly and hopefully before the One who makes all things new.
