

7.5 Physician Participation in Prehospital Performance Improvement—TYPE II

Applicable Levels

LI, LII, LIII, PTCI, PTCII

Definition and Requirements

In all trauma centers, a physician from the emergency department or trauma program must participate in the prehospital PI process, including assisting in the development of prehospital care protocols relevant to the care of trauma patients.

Additional Information

None

Measures of Compliance

- Attendance records from prehospital PI meetings
- Prehospital care protocols relevant to the care of trauma patients

Resources

None

References

None