

INVITED INWARD | PRINTABLE LENS CARDS

Cut along the dotted lines for three intentional anchors.

Use this when you feel pressured to choose a side instead of finding your center.

Many things can be true at once...

From stillness
comes discernment.

Place this where you usually feel the most "noise" (your laptop, your car, your vanity).

Look for the space of wonderment.

When a situation feels "failed" or messy, look closer. What small beauty is waiting to be claimed?
