

Who's who at Langford Chapel

An occasional look at the people we see here

Derek Cleave kindly agreed to be our speaker for the evening service on the 24th June. He is extremely busy, being a well-known and much appreciated speaker at conferences and residential Bible holiday weeks. Derek has authored books and is also Chaplain to Bristol City Football Club. He says it is many years since he last spoke at Langford. He and his wife Margaret are actively involved in their Church at Philip Street in Bristol.

Looking brighter . . .

We were pleased to find a local tradesman to repair and repaint the noticeboard and external doors at the Chapel. They are now gleaming and we are grateful to Stephen Buxton, ably assisted by his cousin Ralph, for patient and careful workmanship. We regard caring for our historic building as very important, while making the message of the love of Jesus our absolute priority.

Missionary update

At our June Missionary Prayer meeting Andrew Beacham told us about the Mission charity he works for in Bath, Echoes International. This has a long history of helping missionaries in their work. Formerly known as Echoes of Service, it is adapting to a changing world, yet still keeps to the principles of faith, with those who serve the Lord trusting Him for their needs.

From the Pastor's ~~study~~ travels

My wife and myself were invited to join the annual outing of the Bristol Evangel Male Voice Praise choir to Swanage. We had time in Poole en route while we waited for the boat to take us onward and we came across this anchor. We had recently been in Northern Ireland and seen a larger one at Strangford. The old hymn came to mind: "Will your anchor hold in the storms of life", which is based on Hebrews 6 verse 19. Dear reader, is the hope Jesus gives the anchor in your life?

For your diary

As we go to press the first half of the year is nearly over. Here are some dates for July.

After a few years gap, we are looking forward to the visit of the Bristol Evangel Male Voice Praise choir on Sunday the 8th of July at 6.30 p.m. Some readers will recall their powerful and moving singing, which can be heard with clarity thanks to our Chapel's amazing acoustic properties. They will bring their own musician for the congregational hymns and someone to share God's word.

Don't forget the regular events. Our Pastor has now commenced a series in the huge book of Isaiah as part of our Sunday services (11 and 6.30) and on Tuesdays (7.45 p.m.) we are looking at the fascinating book of Zechariah at the Bible Study and Prayer meeting.

The Aroma coffee morning is on Saturday 28th July. This continues to be popular, there was only a slight drop in numbers in May after April's tenth anniversary. (June's event is about to happen as we write.)
