

Who's who at Langford Chapel

An occasional look at the people we see here

We first met Jonathan Hunt when he came with Barry King for the special "Is God good?" event last July. He is the Pastor of Morton Baptist Church near Thornbury, and he came back to Langford to preach for us for the first time in April. Jonathan has been at Morton since 2012 and their website mentions that the chapel there was built in 1834, which means it is 12 years older than our own. He was off the next day to a conference but has promised to visit us again soon.

Strangers welcome

Our Pastor, George, was pleased to be invited to attend the Annual Parish meeting for Churchill and Langford in April. The Chairman, Jackie Bush, mentioned that irrespective of the feelings that some have about too much housing development, we need to make newcomers welcome. We at Langford Chapel will be very happy to do this; we were told that the first homes adjoining Pudding Pie Lane may be occupied as soon as October this year. Perhaps we will see more new faces at the Aroma coffee mornings and even in our morning and evening services.

Prayer requests

Local minister J. L. is feeling better and thanks us for our prayers as recovery continues. Remember Aroma regular R.W. who is still unwell. We are praising the Lord that we are seeing more people attending services and we ask you to pray again that this nation will turn back to God. Pray for talks with North Korea and for the many Christians there who are interned in labour camps, as well as those meeting secretly. The lady, M., who we have often asked you to pray for, was recently in hospital again.

Not royal but they are newborn!

We were visiting homes in the Puxton area recently and came across these lambs enjoying the warmth. They were very obviously curious, while their mother, just out of view in the photo, was eying us suspiciously. Puxton has an unusual feature, the church tower has a pronounced lean. Not as well-known as the leaning tower at Pisa in Italy of course. More inside.

Focus on Puxton

Somerset Gospel Outreach evangelist Chris Gadd looks up at the leaning church tower. The building is mostly 11th Century.

Why were we there?

For some years we have been convinced that we should reach out to people who may not feel able to get to church and also try to help those who have doubts or questions about faith. The early Church went out to where the people were and Jesus taught His disciples to share the good news. Obviously we have concentrated on the area local to the Chapel but we make occasional visits to nearby villages. For some time we had been visiting around Sandford, and as the outlying houses spread out onto the moorland it was easy to find ourselves getting near Puxton and even the edge of Hewish. Several people were pleased to accept Christian literature and some wanted to chat about the Lord Jesus. What we don't do, unlike some other groups, is to pester people. We only go back if someone would like to know more or contacts us later.

For your diary

As we went to press with this AMay issue, we were about to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the Aroma coffee mornings at the end of April.

There will be a different format to the meeting on Tuesday 8th May, when our usual Bible Study and prayer will give way to an illustrated talk, entitled “Israel - God’s purposes past, present and future”. The speaker is Bible teacher David Herring, well-known to us; some of you heard him at our last Carol Service. The start time is 7.45 p.m. This is an opportunity to find out more about what the Bible really says concerning the Middle East and is not political in any way.

The next Aroma is on Saturday 26th May. If you keep coming perhaps we will still be serving good coffee and cakes for another ten years! We open each fourth Saturday at 10.30 and welcome new faces too.
