

Who's who at Langford Chapel

An occasional look at the people we see here

Dr Eric Barrett and his wife Rosemary came back to the Chapel on Tuesday 6th November after a gap of a few years to tell us more about their mission. This is helping Hungarian-speaking churches in Eastern Europe. As well as arranging building projects, Eric, who is a scientist, gives many talks there. The mission is called Magyar Misszió, the English name is rather long so they call it 4H.

"We have seen His star"

Genesis Chapter One makes it sound easy for God — “He made the stars also”. There are reckoned to be about 100 thousand million stars in the Milky Way alone. That ought to be enough, but 2,000 years ago God made another special one - to announce the birth of His Son Jesus. Look inside at For your diary for details of an invitation to find out more about the Star of Bethlehem.

Mrs M. Hunt

After our November issue went to press we heard that our dear sister May had gone to be with the Lord on the 31st October. She was the widow of Jonathan (John) and they first came to Langford Chapel at the end of the 1990s, with our brother becoming a Deacon in 2002, serving faithfully till his Homecall in 2014. Over the following years May had a number of illnesses yet so often had a smile ready for those who visited her. She loved her home, her garden and her family and eagerly anticipated the quarterly “Our Daily Bread” Bible notes which our Secretary, Christine, gave her. A well-attended service in her memory was held at the Chapel on the 16th November, conducted by Pastor George. May hailed from Scotland and this was reflected in the tartan theme of the gathering and by the attendance of a piper at the Chapel and the graveside. Tributes given included an interesting and detailed account of her life and two audio messages from family members in Scotland and Australia.

Prayer requests

Remember those who have recently been bereaved; ask that they may know the help of the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3).

Pray for those who are being persecuted for their faith, especially Asia Bibi, who has been acquitted of blasphemy in Pakistan, that she may be kept safe from those who want to kill her.

Pray that as people attend services and read cards over the Christmas season, many will find Jesus as their own wonderful Saviour.

Praise the Lord that there has been a growth in attendance at the Chapel and an increasing interest in the Bible’s teaching.

Thank the Lord for the provision He has made for our needs.

Pray for those still battling illness, especially D.L. Give thanks that W.M. is much improved. Remember the mother of V.O., who is very poorly following a fall.

Tweet of the month

Langford Evangelical Church @Langford_Chapel · Nov 4

I will not boast in anything, no gifts no power no wisdom; but I will boast in #jesus #christ his death and resurrection.

November’s top tweet from Langford Chapel was a quote from the hymn “How deep the Father’s love for us”, by Stuart Townend.

Pastor’s anniversary

November the 14th marked nine years since George was inducted at Langford Chapel and on the following Sunday refreshments were served after the evening service, including the fine cake in the photo. He pays tribute to all those who have helped him.

Mrs Ruth Weaver

We were sad to hear of the passing of our popular Aroma friend on the 11th November. As we went to press, a thanksgiving service was arranged for Friday 30th November at 2.15 p.m. at Churchill Methodist Church.

For your diary

We begin our last diary notes for 2018 with an invitation sent from Morton Baptist Church for Thursday 6th December at 7 p.m. to hear Professor Stuart Burgess. His theme is “The star of Bethlehem”.

Back at the Chapel, there will be a December Aroma coffee morning this year, as the fourth Saturday falls before Christmas on the 22nd. Starts at 10.30. as always. Bring your friends along for the usual “Coffee and more”—and maybe something extra!

On Sunday the 23rd there is Christmas Praise at 11 a.m. and the traditional Carol Service at 6.30 p.m.

On Christmas Day there will be our usual worship service, remember that it is at 10.30. There will not be a Bible study and prayer meeting.
