

Who's who at Langford Chapel

An occasional look at the people we see here

Philip and Wendy Wright have been worshipping with us for several months and we have appreciated their very practical help. Philip has shared some of his excellent photos, a few of which have appeared in these pages, and Wendy has a flair for arranging items in an attractive way. They are keen on bird watching and country walks and are enjoying the Bible teaching at the Chapel.

Deal or no deal?

Our Pastor pointed out recently that it is not an option to have 'No deal' with God. Whatever your views on Brexit (or maybe you are just fed up with the whole subject), the Bible makes it clear that we need to be reconciled to God (2 Corinthians 5 verse 20) - He does not need to change His position. At Langford Chapel we still preach the only solution - trusting Christ as Saviour and Lord.

Some things are not funny

Donald Tusk's recent comments about those he disagrees with politically shocked some people but of course his phrase, "A special place in Hell" reflects a general view that such a subject is not to be taken seriously. The Bible does not treat the matter humourously. It was already planned as a topic for a meeting next month!

In this issue:

Are you sitting comfortably? You might not know this fact.
Advance notice. Something unusual is coming early next month.
Who's who? Have you met these people yet?
Another Bible quiz to get you thinking.

Are you sitting comfortably?

One of our newer members mentioned the pews in the Chapel the other day. Although they look very old, they are not the original set. The 1846 seating was replaced in 1938 when it was decided to make a central interior entrance and as the earlier ones went across the middle they had to go. A generous donation was made, which is recorded on a plaque on the front wall. A few years ago some pews were removed for easier wheelchair access and new fitted cushions were added.

Prayer requests

We have heard that M.D., a Pastor from a nearby town, has suffered a heart attack and is waiting for further treatment. Please remember him, his family and the Church in your prayers.

Continue to pray for our nation at this difficult time, that leaders might seek wisdom from God.

Ask the Lord to comfort those who are being persecuted for Christ. Don't forget to pray for D.L., who has been unwell for some time and is currently receiving treatment.

Give thanks to God for all who faithfully preach the Bible's message.

Advance notice

As mentioned in "For your diary", this question will be the topic of the next of our special meetings. Though it will be in April, it's right at the start - so don't miss it.

Tweet of the month

Langford Evangelical Church @Langford_Chapel

"But we never can prove, the delights of His love, until all on the altar we lay; for the favour He shows and the joy He bestows, are for all who will trust and obey" .. Trust and obey, there really is, no other way. #Jesus #Christ #theway

'Plastered' no longer

Following our report in last month's issue, we are pleased to say that Pastor George now has two free hands, although healing is not quite complete as we go to press. He says he is very grateful for your prayers and also all the practical help he has had from Church members and friends while he was not able to drive.
