“Wow!”

That was the comment of someone who saw this photo on Facebook of the harvest display. Grateful thanks to those who arranged it and to all who gave these good things which were afterwards taken to Bethesda Evangelical Church in Weston-Super-Mare to help some needy people there. The day's collections at the Harvest services went to Caring For Life, a charity which cares for vulnerable people. We do indeed “Thank the Lord for all His love”.

In this issue:

Another favourite hymn: This month's is chosen by our Pastor.
 Harvest Supper: Two photos from this much enjoyed evening.
 What's happening this month: See 'For your diary'.

My favourite hymn

by Pastor George

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun does its successive journeys run,
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
till moons shall wax and wane no more.

To Him shall endless prayer be made,
and praises throng to crown His head.
His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise with every morning sacrifice.

People and realms of every tongue dwell on His love with sweetest song, and infant voices shall proclaim their early blessings on His name.

Blessings abound where'er He reigns:
the prisoner leaps to lose his chains,
the weary find eternal rest,
and all the sons of want are blest.

Let every creature rise and bring the highest honours to our King, angels descend with songs again,
and earth repeat the loud 'Amen'.

I have many favourite hymns but regulars at the Chapel will know that this one is often chosen by me. Isaac Watts' words make me think of that glorious time when the Lord shall reign on the earth that rejected Him.

Prayer requests

Pray for children and young people who are being pressured to accept changes to their life by adults.

Ask God to help those who share the gospel of Christ.

Give thanks for all those who have turned to Christ this year.

Pray for the nation's leaders (the Bible tells us to do this).

Remember those in poor health, especially E.M. and D.B.

Pray for those persecuted for their faith, in Syria and elsewhere.

Thank the Lord for the joyful Harvest time at the Chapel.

"How marvellous! How wonderful! And my song shall ever be; How marvellous! How wonderful! Is my Saviour's love for me!"

Charles Hutchison 1858-1932

Harvest Supper

One of the blessings of our increased membership is having a larger pool of helpers and the decision was taken to revive this event. A good number were able to join us to enjoy a splendid three-course meal. Our thanks to all who helped organise this. Another photo on the back page.

For your diary

November 14 marks the tenth anniversary of our Pastor's induction at Langford. He does not do all the preaching and we look forward to visits from David Field and Steven Whitaker, as well as someone new to us, John Norris from Buckingham Baptist Church in Clifton, Bristol.

Don't forget the Tuesday Bible studies continue each week and there's the usual Aroma coffee morning on Saturday the 23rd.
