

If an extension of time to file your tax return(s) is required, any tax that may be due with the tax return(s) must be paid with the extension. Any amounts not paid by the filing deadline are subject to interest and late payment penalties. All costs in this regard are your responsibility. This includes any additional fees for the extension as well as any penalties and/or interest that may be due because of the late payment.

Tax law provides for various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability. Please ask if you would like more information regarding this topic.

It is your responsibility to provide sufficient amounts of money to pay your taxes so that we can submit them in a timely manner on your behalf. You understand and acknowledge that you are solely responsible for defending any and all claims and paying any and all damages that may arise out of your failure to sufficiently fund your tax obligations in a timely manner; and/or your request that we delay submission of your taxes beyond the due date for any reason whatsoever. Moreover, you agree to defend and indemnify Peachtree Financial against any and all claims arising out of or related to any such circumstances.

Your tax returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments resulting from that review are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government review or tax examination, we will be available upon request to represent you under separate engagement and additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred will apply if engaged for representation.

As additional consideration for us to provide you these services, you agree that the extent of our liability for damages to you for any actions taken will not exceed the total amount actually paid by you for our services. You agree that this will be your only remedy and you hereby waive any other claims you have now or in the future for actual, incidental, and consequential damages, including, but not limited to, lost profits and third party claims.

Regardless of the location of your residence or business, the Fayette County Superior Court, the State of Georgia, or the appropriate federal district court having venue, will have jurisdiction over all controversies that might arise regarding this agreement.

It is agreed by us that there are no other agreements or understandings between us relating to the subject matter of this engagement agreement and that it supersedes all prior income tax return engagement agreements and the like, either written or oral, that exist or may have existed for the 2022 tax year. Neither this engagement agreement nor its execution have been induced by any reliance, representation, stipulation, warranty, agreement, or understanding of any kind other than those expressed in this agreement. No change or modification of this engagement agreement shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by the parties.

Either you or Peachtree Financial and its affiliates may cancel this engagement at any time by any form of written or electronic notice. If you cancel and we have performed any work prior to our receiving your cancellation notice, you agree to pay us for such work performed based upon our current rate schedule. We may use any deposits or payments already received and apply them to your account.

RECORD RETENTION POLICY

We will retain our work papers and copies of your financial reports and other records for the engagement for seven years. We will provide you copies of tax returns prepared upon completion. If you should need replacements, we will provide additional copies which might incur additional costs to you. All of your original records will be returned to you. After seven years, our records pertaining to this engagement will no longer be available. Physical deterioration or catastrophic events may shorten the term during which our records will be available. The work papers and files of our firm are not a substitute for your original records. It is agreed and understood that in connection with the performance of our engagement, the work papers prepared by us will remain property of Peachtree Financial and its affiliates.
