

EEO Report
2024-2025

Seven Ranges Radio Company
Mid Ohio Valley Radio Corporation

Seven Ranges Radio Company, Inc. operates three FM radio stations: WRRR-FM, St. Marys, WV; WXCR, New Martinsville, WV; and WVVV, Williamstown, WV. Co-owned Mid Ohio Valley Radio Corporation operates AM station WVAM, Parkersburg, WV.

Seven Ranges has five full-time employees, who also have duties with Mid Ohio Valley Radio. Mid Ohio Valley Radio has no separate full-time employees, but employs two part-time employees. During the time period May 27, 2024 to May 27, 2025, neither company had any openings for full time employment. A part-time control room operator was added in the summer of 2024, he was referred to the company by a relative employed part-time with Seven Ranges as a sports announcer. A sales person was added in the fall of 2024, he contacted Seven Ranges directly, having retired from another local broadcast company in 2024. He works on a commission-only basis part-time.

Outreach. Seven Ranges maintains contacts with community college West Virginia University at Parkersburg (“WVUP”), Parkersburg, WV, and Marietta College, Marietta, Ohio. Both institutions offer programs in media and marketing. WVUP operates low power FM station WPKM-LP, while Marietta College operates reserved band station WMRT, and student-run WCMO.