A BIG FAT THANK YOU!

Dear Parents, Families and Friends,

Thank you for buying our book Oddball Thoughts and Funny Things. It is our sincere hope that you will share laughter, humor and a few chuckles or as we like to call it, a little tickle for your tummy, with your little ones.

We want to create a new creative space for kids to create art, humor and drawings that will then be published. By offering such a space, this will empower even more children to explore the creative space, thereby helping to create the next generation of authors, artist and humorists.
