

First Annual Year End BBQ

Thursday, June 13, 2019 we celebrated our 1st Annual Year End School BBQ with a sizeable group of Dyslexia Centre staff, supporters, sponsors and families.

Unfortunately, the rain precluded us having our barbecue outside but the Scottish Rite came to our rescue and was able to accommodate us at the last minute.

It was a great way to get everyone together to see the progress that is being made. Most heart-warming of all was the declaration of a some of our students who have been working diligently with their tutors in this first year. These young people indicated that their confidence level has improved as well as their reading skills and they are understanding their homework better than ever.

Ill Bro. Robert S. Whitmore 33°, Sovereign Grand Commander A.&A.S.R. of Canada made a surprise visit and we were thrilled to have him in to see how successful the Hamilton Learning Centre has been so far.

The hot dogs, sausages and hamburgers that were cooked up outside by some wonderful volunteer Masons were great and everyone was happy to dig in as well as the salads prepared by Scottish Rite Kitchen.

To the parents who contribute refreshments for the students. We are grateful for your generosity and kindness

To all of our volunteers and volunteer tutors without their time, energy and knowledge we could not operate

There are many events throughout the year that help to fund the Hamilton Dyslexia Centre. We urge you to take part in as many as you can. Get a group together and make it a party.

Save the Date: December 8th, 2019 at 2 p.m.

Once again the Cathedral Players (aka Masons and Eastern Star people) will be presenting a play in the Cathedral at the Scottish Rite. All proceeds go to the Dyslexia Centre. In 2017, we presented "The Trial of Ebenezer Scrooge" which was really well received. This year we are presenting

"Happy Hollandaise"

A British farce that promises to keep you laughing.

Tickets are:

$25 performance only

$60 performance and dinner (following the performance in the Banquet Room of the Scottish Rite.)

To purchase tickets see any cast member, contact Ken Laliberte or visit the Dyslexia Centre.

E-transfers for payment may be made to ken.laliberte59@sympatico.ca or phone 905 543 9527

Please send a separate email verifying the number of tickets and whether they are for performance only or dinner & performance.

be a volunteer

Volunteers are always needed at the Dyslexia Centre:

- Teachers
- Office Assistance
- Answering Phones / Greeting Visitors

If you have a half day a week that you can volunteer please call Claudia at 905-228-1236

BY TIM KOENIG

"Produced by special arrangement with Pioneer Drama Service, Inc., Englewood, Colorado"

All Claire Finley wants is the perfect Christmas. She's hired the celebrated gourmet chef Vilma Hasenpfeffer to prepare her famous Hasenpfeffer Hollandaise Sauce for her dinner guests — the new vicar and his very pregnant wife, Mary. Unfortunately, the chef is late, the guests are early and there are burglars loose in the neighborhood. To top it all off, Claire's father has been hit on the head and thinks he's the leading man in all of the West End theatre productions of the last 30 years! With the help of her quirky brother George, Claire tries to keep everything together as it continues to unravel in this side-splitting British farce. But once the mayhem dies down and the mixed-up identities unscramble, the true Christmas spirit shines bright in a surprise ending, which involves transformation, forgiveness, and a beautiful new beginning.