

PEE SUPREME

American Entertainer | Rapper | Songwriter | Artist
Biography

Born and raised on the Southside of Houston, TX, known as (Third Ward). PEE SUPREME is the humble beast she is today because of her upbringing. “You have to definitely be a solid, stand-up individual to make a name for yourself here.” She speaks.

She carries a very versatile, sexy, southern vibe in her style as an Artist and entertainer and with a conspicuous drive, she has developed a household name.

People Respect PEE SUPREME’S name & brand along with anything she brings to the table because of her tireless work ethic, passion and time she has put into the music game.

Preme is all for the community, in fact, she gives back every Summer, the abundant star has performed for The Mayor of Houston and produces her Quarterly music cyphers, extending her platform to elucidate other artist.

Collaborating with some of the biggest names in Texas such as OG RON C & DJ CHOSE has positively impacted her journey to becoming a living legend around the world.

“People will know who I am and why I am here! As a woman in hip hop, unavoidable experiences have been self-defying. I do not have a plan B and I will not quit!” She says “my love for what I do is illuminating my pathways to break barriers and prove that I belong in this industry. It's hard. I've cried, I have been discouraged, but time after time, I gain... I become more fierce and more determined to win!”

“My goal in music is to build a platform and become a voice for those who do not have one. To create avenues and show people like me all over the globe that when you fight to break chains and generational curses for your past, present and future. it can happen!” -Pee Supreme
