MEMBERSHIP PARTICIPATION SURVEY FORM

DWPC values your active participation. Sisters, we can't move forward without you! We have lots of different ways you can help out. The 2024 elections are going to be so important to win the Presidency and gain the majority in the House and keep it in the Senate! Please check any of the volunteer opportunities below:

Committees: Committees are a great way to become an active member and have a direct impact on the success of various activities of our organization. Only a one-year (renewable) commitment is required, and meetings are scheduled on an "as needed" basis. The strength of any organization lies in its membership participation. We need lots of creative ideas and worker bees to succeed! Please check below if you are interested in serving on ANY of these committees:

- Advocacy/Activism Committee – working with political issues and candidates
- Social Media/Communication Committee – making sure our message reaching people in our communities
- Membership Development Committee – encouraging new membership and retaining existing members
- Program and Social Events Committee – planning and organizing our many social and political events
- Fundraising – organizing and participating in DWPC fundraising events

Board Membership: Serving on the board is the perfect way to share your leadership talents to carry forth the direction/goals of the organization. A two-year commitment is required and there are monthly board meetings. Please check ANY of the following Board positions that you would consider:
