

Justice for Douglas 'Chief' Stankewitz

DOUG HAS SERVED 48 YEARS IN PRISON FOR A CRIME HE DIDN'T COMMIT.

Help us bring 'Chief' justice and set him free.

VS

Who initiated the crime?

Media reports said that Doug initiated the kidnapping.

NOT DOUGLAS

Tina initiated the kidnapping per police statements and second trial testimony. Second Trial transcript: Tina pushed Theresa into the car. P 479, lines 4-6 & p. 487, line 5, p491, line3-4. Tina was driving. P 496, lines 19-20

Sole eyewitness credible?

Billy Brown, who was 14 at the time, was the sole eyewitness.

No, Billy was not.

He was interviewed in a bedroom alone with no parents present. He was charged with murder and coerced to give an account by Police.

The murder weapon?

The murder weapon in evidence showed his guilt

Evidence doesn't match.

the weapon in evidence is not tied to Douglas. CLETs report re: gun in evidence and evidentiary hearing expert testimonies.

Gun holster in evidence?

Gun holster in evidence shows his guilt.

Not possible.

The holster was in police custody at the time of the murder. CLETs report re: gun in evidence and evidentiary hearing expert testimonies.

A qualified Doctor?

Dr. Missett said that Douglas admitted that he did the shooting.

No, he was not.

He lost his medical license after it was determined that he falsified defendant's testing in a court case in Sonoma County. Disciplinary decision of the CA licensing board re: Dr. James Missett.

"There was no physical evidence linking Petitioner to Graybeal's murder."

 justiceforchief.org

Justice for Douglas 'Chief' Stankewitz

DOUG SERVED 48 YEARS IN PRISON FOR A CRIME HE DIDN'T COMMIT.

Help us bring 'Chief' justice and set him free.

VS

Douglas had fair representation?

His trial lawyer in the second trial was effective.

His attorney was found incompetent

His attorney was found to be ineffective in the second trial penalty phase Ninth Circuit decision- Stankewitz v Wong, 698 F.3d (2012)

Doug bragged about killing?

Douglas, when describing the murder, said "did I drop her or did I drop her".

No, he did not.

The statement was wrongly attributed to him. In fact, Douglas told the victim that he would not allow any harm to come to her. Co-defendant police reports

Doug was present?

Douglas was present when the victim was shot.

No, he was not.

Alibis would've confirmed he was seeking a ride at the time of the murder. Fresno Superior Court hearing transcripts and Declaration of Douglas Stankewitz filed with the court in 2019.

DNA testing was done?

DNA testing could have cleared him.

Not possible.

DNA testing of clothing could not be done due to improper storage by Fresno Sheriff's office. Forensic Analysis Crime lab report.

Evidence handled properly?

Fresno law enforcement did a proper investigation.

No, not at all.

Over 50 pieces of evidence went missing, including recordings of co-defendants' statements. Marlin's jacket which, according to experts, could have had the victim's blood went missing. Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, filed 1/2021

"There was no physical evidence linking Petitioner to Graybeal's murder."

 justiceforchief.org