CHASE

<sup>1</sup> The Chase Closing Guarantee offers assurance to customers purchasing a home with a Chase home loan that the loan will close on or before the Contract Closing Date, or the customer will receive monetary compensation in the form of a check, post-closing.

Eligibility: To be eligible for the Chase Closing Guarantee, the customer must: (1) Complete a home loan application online, by telephone, or face-to-face; (2) Provide all requested supporting documentation including income/asset documents needed to make a loan decision and signed disclosures; and (3) Provide a fully-executed purchase contract that must include all pages, addendums, and required signatures. (4) Closing Date: This offer is only available for new, residential first-lien home loan applications submitted directly to Chase. If the customer is obtaining a conventional home loan, the contract closing date must be at least 21 calendar days after receipt of a completed home loan application, supporting documents, and a fully-executed purchase contract, except for a cooperative project (co-op) which requires 60 calendar days. If the customer is obtaining an FHA- or VA-insured home loan, the contract closing date must be at least 30 calendar days after receipt of a completed home loan application, supporting documents, and a fully-executed purchase contract, except for a cooperative project (co-op) which requires 60 calendar days. When an FHA/VA final inspection is required for new construction or specific home repairs, Chase guarantees closing within 5 business days from receipt of a satisfactory final inspection or satisfactory proof of final repairs. (5) Conventional Final Inspection for New Construction: For any property that receives an initial appraisal subject to repairs/completion, a final inspection is required. Chase guarantees closing within 3 business days of receipt of a satisfactory final inspection. (6) For an FHA- or VA-insured home loan on a condo, the condo must be FHA or VA (as applicable) approved at the time of submission of the home loan application.

Ineligibility: The Chase Closing Guarantee does not apply in any of the following circumstances: (1) Refinances; (2) Customer- or seller-initiated changes to the original closing date documented in the purchase agreement; (3) The following customer- or seller-initiated changes within 10 days of closing: loan amount, product type, contract terms, interest rate or initial rate locks; (4) Closing date extensions due to a delay in completion of new construction, improvements or repairs being made to the subject property; (5) Failure by the customer or seller to meet contract terms and requirements, including seller-related delays; (6) Transactions involving Consolidation, Extension and Modification Agreements (CEMAs) or loan amounts $2 million or greater; (7) Delays due to force majeure events, including weather or a natural disaster; (8) Delays caused by third parties other than Chase-required service providers; (9) Delays due to the customer's failure to respond to Chase requests within 2 business days; And (10) Delays due to non-arm's length transactions (a purchase transaction in which a direct personal, financial or business relationship exists among any of the parties to the transaction). Chase reserves the right to amend, terminate or withdraw the Chase Closing Guarantee at any time without prior notice.

Credit Card Point awards, grants, cash back, closing guarantees, and other awards ("awards") transferred to you under the terms of the program will be considered by Chase a discount of underwriting fees paid at mortgage closing. Any awards transferred at or outside closing in excess of the value of the underwriting fees may be considered miscellaneous income and may be reportable on Form 1099-MISC (Miscellaneous Information) or Form 1042-S (Foreign Person's U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding) to you and the IRS for the year in which you participate and receive the awards. You are responsible for any tax liability related to participating in the program. Please consult your personal tax advisor for questions about the impact to your personal income tax returns.
