

JWG Interview

2/23/79

Q -- how many people would you say that you brought to your house in the past five years, John, that, you know, are still alive?

A Roughly?

Q Yeah.

A Maybe four or five hundred.

Q Well, why are some dead and why are others alive?

A Because, ya know, like I say before, some of those, the ones that were killed were threats of violence or blackmail or shit like that. I think that, and I'm not positive cause I'm only surmising...

Q Do you remember any specifically--do you remember people...?

A No, No, Bob, I might be just surmising it, but some of them that were killed were at my house more than once. In other words, once they came and participated, the second time they came back with blackmail in mind. And rather than pay the Q blackmail, I eliminated them.

Do you remember that specifically?

A No. Again, it's a conjecture and I....
