

Q How was he killed?

A Strangulation.

Q The rope trick. You had put the rope on his neck.

A Yeah.

Q Did you have sex with him?

A No. No, you know, he was thrown on the, he laid on the side of the bed, cause then I had to leave. The phone was ringing again, but the answering service was on. Then I had to clear the answering service and when I cleared the answering service it says "Johnny, this is Aunt Leone, we're on our way to the hospital" , we' re on our way to the hospital because of my Uncle Harold. I went and changed my shirt and grabbed my jacked--I changed my pants and shirt and grabbed my jacket, got in the car and took off. Now this had to be 10:15 or so when I took off.

Q And he was dead?

A Yeah

Q Did he have his clothes on?

A Yeah

Q Do you remember the actual killing?

A No.

Q Do you remember strangling him?

A No.

Q Do you remember carrying him into the bedroom?

A No, he walked into the bedroom.

Q Why?

A I told him that's where the key to the handcuffs were when he wanted the handcuffs off.

Q Is that when you killed him, in the bedroom?

A Yeah.

Q From behind or in front of him?

A No--standing right next to him.

Q Did he struggle?

A He fell on the floor, yeah. See all I did i-is, a-after the rope, he was standing there when I put the rope around his neck. He was standing right there, because all I said was "I want to show you something". But then, I don't, I don't remember. I think he fell on the floor cause that's when the phone rang cause I left.

Q Who was it--was it your aunt?

A No. The answering service had covered it, but then I had to go clear the answering service out to find out who called.

Q So the phone was ringing while you were killing him?

A Yeah, I think so.
