

first of all I arrived at the drug store at 5:30, left at 7:00, when I came home at 7:00 I did some Valium, but I only think I did two 10 mg Valiums, then I went back--because I would have never gone back to the store. They called me up and told me that my book was there and then I decided to go back. Cause when I originally was there, I was there with my car. I had no intention of going back there--in fact, I was at my house, I cleared the tape off, and when I cleared the tape off there was a call from, from, uh Larry Torf or his brother that I had left my bible
