

A Ya know, Sam said I could have killed a hundred people, how do I know I didn't kill a hundred people?

Q You don't.

A How do I know I didn't do this while I was traveling?

Q You don't.

A I don't recall. It's possible, but I don't recall if I did any stalking while traveling, ya know. Ya know, like in case I get someone's job at night, if I went around looking for something or anything like that.
