

A. Godzik I don't remember killing ... Godzik, I told ya, I picked him up at, uh, North-Northwest Highway and Van Nuys (?) Avenue. He called me at the house—he was supposed to be getting a, a lid for me and, uh, he had, I was at home that night watching the late movie and he was supposed to get a hold of me earlier, that's why I was home that night waiting for him to call and he was gonna tell me where to pick it up, okay? And, uh, I don't know, I think he, he called around 11:30 or even at midnight or after midnight he called and told to pick him up. When I got there, he didn't have it, so then he wanted me to take him to his car—cause he, he wasn't with his car. I don't recall where the hell his car was, his car wasn't there. ... And we were drinking and we were smoking some grass that was at the house. He had a couple of joints on him too.

Q Do you recall what date this was?

A No.

Q You had already known Cram and Rossi?

A Yeah, I think it was in November.

Q Was Cram or Rossi with you when you picked Godzik up, do you recall that?

A No, I think Rossi had worked that Saturday during the day, but I don't recall, ya know.

Q Do you recall bringing Godzik back to your place specifically?

A Yeah.

Q Were you alone with him or was there somebody else there--Cram or Rossi?

A As far as I know, we were at, were at the house alone. -- Cause I don't recall anybody else being there, so as far as I know .••• Well then I would've remembered--! don't think there was any--what I'm telling you is I don't think anybody else was there to my knowledge... We were drinking and smoking at my house, yeah. He was found see, I found him in the, on Sunday morning, I found him in the, the living room with his underwear on, but he was dead.

Q What's the last thing you remember about that evening?

A Drinking and smoking and talking •••••

Q That's basically the same thing you said the last time, you remember partying and then you didn't remember anything and then you woke up the next morning and ... do you recall whether or not he had a rope around his neck?

A I don't ..... think that he did. I took it off--I think I took it off of him.

Q Was Godzik an employee?

A Yeah

Q How long had he worked for you?

A Two or three days. He had, he had started one week and then he didn't, he didn't work ....

he didn't show up for work, and then I told him e-either he starts cornin' every day or, or quit the goddamn job cause we wouldn't put up with it. I think he came back and worked and uh, uh, I think it was on a Thursday that I had talked to him about grass. On Friday he had worked with Rossi and Cram or Rossi and uh, Randy Stewart- he had worked with those two--anyhow he, he suposably (sic) went to my house, made a phone call at 3:00 or so and then took off like a bat out of hell. He was all upset and couldn't work. I don't--! think it was over his girlfriend and this older guy who beat the shit out of him.

Q When this happened, what car was Rossi driving?

A Uh, I think ..... ! think he had his white Oldsmobile convertible.

Q It was not Szyk's car?

A A '65 Olds ..... no, I don't think so. I don't know. See, that, that's s-supposition too I don't know .... if he had that car or not.

Q Did Godzik ever party with you and Rossi or cram?

A No

Q So he only worked a few days for you really?

A He worked one or two days at Austin and Irving and the uh the Bruce Kent(?) Drug Store when we did that job. Then he, I think he worked one night at Sportmart. You gotta remember, he only worked part time, he only worked two, three hours--he got out of school at 1:30 in the afternoon or somethin' like that. I know some counselor wanted me to make a report out on him and stuff like that. Well, how the hell can you make a report on somebody if he hadn't worked that much? -- On Thursday, or that Friday when they were working or I don't know when. But, I think he had dug down in the basement and dug his own. I, I think Godzik--Godzik may have dug his own grave.
