

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BISON PASS NOW OFFERING 16 AFFORDABLE CABIN HOMES IN THE COOL PINES OF SHOW LOW, ARIZONA

SHOW LOW, AZ – August 8, 2021 - Bison Homes has announced the commencement of sales at Bison Pass, a 16 lot resort cabin subdivision in Show Low, Arizona. This new home community is located in the heart of northeastern Arizona's White Mountains region, known for its cooler summer temperatures, abundance of outdoor recreational activities and small-town charm.

Individual home designs at Bison Pass include two bedrooms and two bathrooms within a comfortable 1,232 square feet. Priced affordably from the $370s, each home includes a free-standing 2-car garage and an interior upgrades and appliance package. Homes are built on pristine forested lots adjacent to national forest, with an HOA providing all exterior landscape maintenance as well as community guidelines designed to preserve and protect home values.

The homes at Bison Pass are rich in architectural detail, with mountain cabin exteriors, and interiors boasting all the comforts and conveniences of home. Standard features include covered front porches, large covered rear decks, electric fireplaces and vaulted ceilings. Quality construction includes custom cabinets, granite countertops, recessed lighting, hickory solid stained doors and nine-foot ceilings. The included appliance package consists of a range/oven/microwave, refrigerator and dishwasher and there is an interior laundry service room. All cabins are serviced by underground utilities including electricity, water, cable/internet and sewer.

The White Mountains region of Arizona is known for its whispering pine forests, green rolling hills and mountains and invigorating four season climate. While offering a relaxing reprieve from city life, the area is also known as Arizona's outdoor recreational playground, with nearby activities like hiking, golf, horseback riding, mountain biking, fishing, boating, ATV trails and downhill skiing at Sunrise Ski Resort. The area is also known for its rustic restaurants, bars and unique shopping options.

Bison Pass is conveniently located in Show Low just off Hwy. 260 at the NWC of Joe Tank Road. The community is just two and one half hours northeast of Phoenix. Potential buyers can call 480.229.5511 and speak directly with owner/developer Gary Martinson. The community site plan, the individual home floorplan and photos of comparable homes are available on the company website at www.bisonhomes.com.
