PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

MRS. WILLIE RUTLAND GARVIN was the first child to be born to the union of Margaret and Eugene Aikins. She was born on October 26, 1910 in Knoxville, Tennessee. She attended the public school at the place of her birth. Later, she moved to Miami, Florida in 1930.

She met and married the late Wilbur Rutland, Sr. and to this union four children were born: one daughter, Shirley preceded her in death.

She professed her belief in Christ at an early age and accepted him as her personal Savior by joining Zion Hope Baptist Church, where she served until she became ill.

At a later date, she met and united with Frank Garvin.

On October 2, 1982, the Master she served so well called her to rest.

She leaves to mourn her passing: a devoted husband, Frank Garvin; one son, Wilbur Rutland; two daughters: Sylvia Johnson and Glodene Lawson; three sisters: Doretha Haywood, Margaret Bethel Austin and Flora Randolph; ten grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; one daughter-in-law, Clementine Rutland; three sons-in-law: Ben Lawson, Reverend Jessie Johnson and Melvin Thompson; and a host of other sorrowing relatives and friends.
