

Love and Burn

Lyrics: Denny Anthony

You give the world, it's all done the same
Grab a bone, a dog goes insane
Safe and sound it grinds out the fray
Come alone in grime for a day

Off, love and burn
You believe it to win
Come and live, all, on, up from another
Off, love and burn
You believe it to win
Come and live, all, on, up from another

You have the time to stake your claim
Fall alone, a tear stained shame
Feast your eyes on compromise
Grab a hold of sorrow's lies

Off, love and burn
You believe it to win
Come and live, all, on, up from another
Off, love and burn
You believe it to win
Come and live, all, on, up from another

Love and burn
You believe it to win
Come and live, Come and live
Up from another!

You give the world, it's all done the same
Grab a bone, and the dog goes insane
Feast your eyes on compromise
Grab a hold of sorrow's lies

Off, love and burn
You believe it to win
Come and live, all, on, up from another
Off, love and burn
You believe it to win
Come and live, all, on, up from another
