

Somniloquy

Lyrics by Denny Anthony

Sky can't leave it around about telling what it almost did and impressed upon really
One in one feeling the way of day peeling the scabs of all hearing the round about New

Fortune healing the fountain revealing what it almost did to evade the wrong dealing
Project scheming the head to head screaming of the water streaming beyond the ones due

Spill the fortune
I mean it
Lose the empty words, Somniloquy
Shed off in ruin

Spout off at the mouth
No bickering
Sand upon Somniloquy
For the ones to be

Stipulating the wrong integrating at the Construct's fading and wall to wall jading
Pattern's breaking, creation awaiting for the hate degrading beyond the one's two

Tearing, gnawing the folly's undoing for the rest ensuing what Love is construing
All degrading in head to head straining is the last thing standing beyond the fall's due

Spill the fortune
I mean it
Lose the empty words, Somniloquy
Shed off in ruin

Spout off at the mouth
No bickering
Sand upon Somniloquy
For the ones to be

Sky can't leave it around about telling what it almost did and impressed upon really
One in one feeling the way of day peeling the scabs of all hearing the round about New

Project scheming the head to head screaming of the water streaming beyond the ones due

Spill the fortune
I mean it
Lose the empty words, Somniloquy
Shed off in ruin

Spout off at the mouth
No bickering
Sand upon Somniloquy
For the world to see
