

Masquerade

The masses gather in their vast array
Staring far beyond the shore
 (A silence floats upon a trusting love)
They're getting close and closer now
But the season has changed
A breech sends the bait that's strong
And satan's time is on the line

 Shouting for the ocean's song
 (Pouring out the bowls of wrath)
 Hope that way is not too long
 (Creep inside the Masquerade)

When lightning flashes from the east and is seen in the west
You know the time is coming soon
 (The sun is darkened by the moon)
They're crippled by the daze of haze
But the people have changed
Toggle from the Book of Life
And demons slide to the side
 (Chorus Repeat x2)

When mammon shutters at the rate of stay
Follows One without the shame
 (The demons show the fear of rusting)
It's getting close and closer now
But the season has change
A breech sends the lust and groan
Of satan's shrine away from time
 (Chorus Repeat x2)
