

Buried

Lyrics by: Denny Anthony Baker

Seldom scream from another
A cyber dimension
Time to escape from this prism
I've seen the shame in sin
    To feel Love

    Fighting from the Light
    Living what is right
    Fight the good... Fight
    Falling from the grime
    Heading for sublime
    Time and... time

After walking the sun beat down
As we reached for falling sky
One torn, he took the throttle
From demons of filled mind

(Chorus):

    How fast we go
    And we go
    With all that's Buried here, and here we are

How fast we go
And we go
With all that's buried here
(Repeat)

    How fast we go
    And we go
    With all that's Buried here
    Fighting from the Light
    Living what is right
    Fight the good... Fight
    Falling from the grime
    Heading for sublime
    Time and... time
