

More Than I Can Say

Lyrics: Denny Anthony

Voice 1:

Eye, I rise upon the wings of dawn
And the Morning Star springs forth from within my heart
Sun, arise to kneel in surrender
And with Love's embrace, we have a need that's left to know, sight
To the healing in Love
And the cure growing along the same, yeah

Voice 2:

Ride onto the prize
And you lean, following calm all assigned
Onward about to do the will of Light
Truth in Love with Life for Grace in sight

All, I love you more than I can say
Fall, I never wanted you to stray

Breathe and seal the ones forsaken by end-trails
The corner of in Love and time of
The One who's comforting the ones who said it

All, I love you more than I can say
Fall, I never wanted you to stray

Voice 1:

Eye, I rise upon the wings of dawn
And the Morning Star springs forth from within my heart
Sun, arise to kneel in surrender
And with Love's embrace, we have a need that's left to know, sight

Voice 2:

Onward about to do the will of Light
Truth in Love with Life for Grace in sight
Ride onto the prize
And you lean, following calm all assigned
